Remembrance 2020.

The annual Service of Remembrance will take place on Sunday November 8 in all our Churches, see page 4 for times.

Please note that there will be no house to house collection selling poppies.
The collection at church will be sent, as usual, to the Royal British Legion.

A Prayer for Remembrance

Ever-living God,
We remember those whom you have gathered from the storm of war into the peace of your presence;
may that same peace calm our fears,
bring justice to all peoples and establish harmony among the nations, through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND

This month more bloopers, announcements and some 'smile lines!'

'A little girl attempted the Lord's Prayer:
"Our Father, who does art in heaven,
Harold is your name.
Amen,"

As space remains limited in Church due to social distancing it is hoped the service pattern should enable villagers & regular congregations to attend a service in their regular place of worship. Recorded or live (organ/piano) music is permissible but there will be no congregational singing and wearing of masks is required.

Although services are resuming the weekly sheet with prayers and Bible readings will continue to be available by e-mail and could be used as a basis for worship, if you would like to be included on the distribution list for the virtual service contact your PCC Secretary [details page 3]

AND…. on Mondays Monday @ 9 continues via zoom. If you would like to join us please contact Sally Davis on beneficechurchtrio@gmail.com before Sunday evening so she can send the link to the service beforehand.

The Diocese of Bath & Wells also have links to prayers & services which you may wish to access using the following link….

OBJECTS OF FAITH.

A teacher gave her class a 'show and tell' assignment. Each youngster was asked to bring in an object to share with the class that represented their religion.

Benjamin got up in front of the class and said: "I'm Jewish, and this is a Star of David."

Mary stood up next and said: "I'm a Catholic and this is a Rosary."

Then Tim stood up and said "I'm a Baptist, and this is a casserole."

CHURCH NEWS.

Next steps for the Benefice.

As explained last month the churches in the benefice are in the process of choosing a new Rector to serve the parishes. The rector is an important part of the community as a whole, and he or she doesn't just serve the churchgoers.

Please respond to any survey or give us your views directly regarding what you think is important about your community and what you would like to see happening within our churches over the next 5 years.

Contact either Chris Lovell (chrislovell@doctors.org.uk), Judith Haywood (jjtallhouse@gmail.com) or one of the churchwardens with any comments, (details page 3) by November 14th as results will need collating to form part of the information required to help attract our new Rector to fill the role in the way the community would like.

Prayer for the Interregnum

Lord Jesus …

please guide those who lead the Benefice in the interregnum, we ask that you will help us share responsibility, grow in faith, love one another, care for those in need, reach out to others, and welcome newcomers, guard and grow our churches as we serve you together and as look for our new rector, we pray through your mercy we may discover your way for the future and see your Kingdom grow.

In the name of Jesus Christ.

Amen

BENEFICE SERVICE at FARMBOROUGH 29th. November 11am.

We are very pleased to welcome Trevor James to speak to us at this informal service.

Over the past year, Trevor has been a Pioneer Minister based in the new Hygge Park estate in Keynsham. He and his family live on the estate and his role is to find ways of linking the kingdom of God to the local community. He has interacted with the community in several ways, including sustaining a rib fracture during a football game!

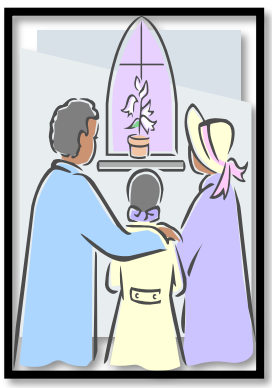

Trevor will tell us something about his experiences so far, and some of the challenges of this new role.

Chris Lovell

During the interregnum

ENQUIRIES about baptism, confirmation and weddings should be made by contacting one of the Churchwardens in the relevant Parish.

AND SAY HELLO.

If you have new neighbours, please let a Churchwarden know so they can receive a copy of Trio & a 'hello' from the Church family.

'Next Sunday's preacher can be found hanging on the notice board in the porch.'

Letter from the The Rt. Revd.

Peter Hancock

Bishop of Bath & Wells.

November 2020

One more step

As a vicar one thing I really enjoyed, even though it seemed to come round rather quickly, was writing the letter for the parish magazine. I know that not all parishes are able to produce a parish magazine and some find a website is a better way to communicate with people, however, I do still appreciate reading them when I can. So I would like to express my thanks to all those involved in writing, editing and producing parish magazines. They are often still an effective way to share what we are doing in our churches and to share with others the good news of the gospel.

Recently I was reading one which had an article by someone recalling a visit made to the north west of the USA some 40 years ago. They spoke about the warmth of their welcome and the joy of being invited to preach in the church. What caught my eye, was that they remembered visiting Lake Wallowa where it is said: 'the air is so pure and the sky so clear that one can see the dawn of the day after tomorrow!' What a glorious expression. Of course, the truth is that we don't know what the future holds and at the moment things are challenging and uncertain for all of us and indeed for the world.

One night recently when I was in hospital, unable to sleep and waiting for the dawn to break, I found myself singing the words of 'One More Step Along the Way' I go which has the chorus: 'And it's from the old I travel to the new, Keep me travelling along with you'.

Maybe as we look to the future, with the joys and challenges that it will bring, that should be our prayer – Lord help us to travel with you wherever you may be leading.

With my warmest greetings,

Bishop Peter

...at the going down of the sun we would have remembered them - but some rotten scrap metal thief has stolen the brass plaque with the names on!!

MEDICAL NAME

'The curate told his doctor that he was worried because he just wasn't able to do all the things around the parish that his vicar expected him to do. When the examination was complete, he said, "I'm prepared for the worst, doctor. Just tell me in plain English what is wrong with me."
"Well, in plain English," the doctor replied, "you're just lazy."
"Okay," said the curate. "Now give me the medical term so I can tell my vicar.".

THE CHILDREN'S SOCIETY BOX

OPENING NOW ALLOWED!

Dear Boxholders,

The children's society have now told us that we can open the boxes.
Tim has collected all Marksbury boxes but for Farmborough residents please would you let Liz have your box, either bring it to Church as she is there most Sunday mornings; or if you prefer we can collect the box from you, just give Liz a ring to arrange a convenient time.
Farmborough can always do with new supporters, as several have been lost over the last year due to varying circumstances.
If you are interested in supporting the work of the Children's Society by becoming a 'Boxholder' please contact Liz & Steve, it's a great way of getting rid of those troublesome copper coins and fiddly 5p pieces!
Marksbury will no longer be involved with collecting boxes but you may wish to send contributions directly to the Society via childrenssociety.org.uk/change or make contact directly with their HQ tel: 0300 303 7000 or contact Liz & Steve. Thank you.

DON'T WORRY.

A little boy was told that he should try and be good, and that he could ask God for help with this. So he prayed: "Lord, please make me good, if you can. But if you can't, don't worry about it. I'm having a real good time like I am."

Family Focus

Please look out for the regular emailing / posting of story and activity packs. Paper copies are available in the church porches for anyone to take and use.
To be on the mailing list to receive the activity packs please contact Liz Ladd 01761 471666 eladd1@btinternet.com

In the Lectionary this month we remember: -

William Temple was born on October 5 1881; his father was Bishop of Exeter. When he grew up his first job was as lecturer in Philosophy at Oxford University. Then he was appointed head of Repton School from 1910-14, and he was a parish priest in London from 1914 – 17. He was appointed a canon of Westminster Abbey then he became Bishop of Manchester in 1921 where he worked to improve the social conditions of workers and for clearer ties between Christian churches. Despite being a socialist he was recommended by a Conservative government as Archbishop of York in 1928 where he contributed widely in the social field of his work. In 1942 he was enthroned as Archbishop of Canterbury but he suffered from gout all his life and died after two and a half years in office as a result of a heart attack aged 63. He was admired and respected for his scholarly writing, his inspirational teaching and preaching; and for his constant concern for those in need or under persecution. He stood up on their behalf to governments at home and abroad.

Hugh of Avalon, better known as Hugh of Lincoln, was born about 1135 at the chateau of Avalon on the borders of Dauphine with Savoy in the French Alps. His mother died when he was 8. His father was a French noble and a soldier so Hugh was sent to a boarding school. Eventually his father retired as a soldier and went to an Augustinian monastery and took his son with him. Hugh became a religious novice at age 15 and was ordained priest. He became, in about 1159, prior of the monastery at Saint Maximinim. From there he left the Benedictines and entered the Grand Chatreuse, then at the height of its rigid reputation for austerity and earnest piety of its members. In 1179 Hugh became prior of Witham Charterhouse in Somerset, the first Carthusian house in England established by Henry II, as a penance for the murder of Thomas Becket. Hugh admonished the king for his practice of keeping bishoprics vacant and retaining their income for the royal chancellery. At a council of bishops and deacons at Eynsham Abbey Hugh was declared Bishop of Lincoln but he insisted that the chapter approve and was consecrated at Westminster on September 21 1186. Hugh established his independence of the king by excommunicating a royal forester and refusing to accept a royal nominee as a prebendary of Lincoln. He later softened the king's anger by diplomatic address and tactful terms. Hugh died on November 16 1200 in London. He is buried in Lincoln cathedral.

Mrs. Margaret Rose Curtis (1926 – 2020)

Rose was born on October 19 1932 to Frederick and Maggie Humphries living next to the Butcher's Arms in Farmborough. Her father died when Rose was 11.

With her friends she attended Farmborough and Timsbury Schools. The authority decided that living on Timsbury Road she did not qualify for home to school transport so she had to walk to Timsbury every day. One day her friend, Rosie Shaw, offered a lift on her bike. The local bobby gave them a stern ticking off for dangerous driving.

Rose went to Sunday School and became a Sunday School teacher. Here she learned her faith which she carried with her for the rest of her life.

When she left school she biked to work at Willoughby's the grocers in Keynsham. Rose was involved in Farmborough Carnival and was proud to be the Queen's attendant. When she was older she enjoyed dances in the tin hut in Hunstrete Lane.
She married Albert Curtis and went to live at Hunstrete with Albert's parents where Alan was born. They moved to Marksbury where Roger, Gerald and Barry were born.

Every year they went on holiday to Weymouth and the family recall happy times there. When the boys went to school Rose took a job as a School Crossing Patrol seeing the children across the A39 near the church. Later she took on the job of School Caretaker, which she carried on faithfully until she retired.

Her husband Albert died on January 1 1998 and is buried in Marksbury churchyard.
She enjoyed coach outings to various places and relished the company of regulars at the Farmborough Community lunches in the Memorial Hall and the Marksbury Teas in church. She and Barry were regulars at Church Coffee Mornings in Marksbury Village Hall.

As time passed Rose's health deteriorated and as well as Barry helping, granddaughter Clare was a great support and also Gerald's wife, Mo, was always ready with assistance.

The family would like to thank all the doctors, nurses and carers who looked after Rose during her illness.

May she rest in peace.

In the Prayer Diary this month we pray for the families and homes from the Green, down the Vale and around the school.

YEAR 3/4 QUADKIDS

Congratulations to our Year 3 and 4 Quadkids Athletics team for representing us so well last week.

The competition was all done remotely and everyone put in fantastic performances in the 4 events.
We're all hopeful in the local area that there will be an opportunity to take part properly at a central venue before the end of the academic year. Fingers crossed! 🤞 Marksbury.

We had our first trip to Chelwood today with Ocean Class, we all had a fantastic time practicing our navigation and teamwork skills. The weather was lovely and we enjoyed being out in the fresh air with our friends, the sound of laughter filling the air was just what we all needed.

BATH AND WELLS..

The Manna magazine has now changed to a monthly mailing format allowing Parish Magazine Editors to include items as here in Trio.

Interview - Serving with the force

Andy Paget has been chaplain to the Avon and Somerset police for almost 25 years.
He is also a pastor at Trinity Tabernacle, central Bristol.

Why did you become a chaplain?
I feel if we are not where people are, how can we be relevant? By being a chaplain people can see I am serving them unconditionally and that is my passion.

How do you support the police?
We support all police staff and their families with any issue that is important to them. If there is a major incident we also head to the scene and offer support to officers on the ground and at times can be a bridge between the community and the police force.

How have recent events affected your role?
I circulated a force-wide message assuring staff that we were still there for them and affirming how much we value the work they do. That's important for them to hear. Police officers have to make decisions quickly, without the benefit of hindsight. When their actions are being reviewed, as they were recently following the Black Lives Matter protests in Bristol, we can affirm them in their role and be there for them.

Any advice for a potential chaplain?
Like many things, the more you put into the role, the more you will get out of it. It requires a real commitment and it is only through that will you see the benefits.

News in brief from around the diocese.

‘A beautiful occasion’

Nine new Readers were licensed by Bishop Ruth last month. As lay people authorised by the bishop, they can now return to their parishes and lead certain parts of worship, to preach and to carry out pastoral and teaching duties. Always a special occasion, this year Covid restrictions meant that instead of one large celebration at Wells Cathedral, there were two services at the Bishop’s Palace Chapel. Reader Mary Udale-Smith said that even though plans been changed, the service was still very moving; “It was really special, a really beautiful occasion and I felt God’s Holy Spirit really present in the Chapel.”

A time to remember

With All Soul's, Remembrance Sunday and Armistice all falling in November, it is a time to look back, to mourn, but also to look forward with hope. And, despite the challenges of Covid, church communities will still gather, either online or in person, to remember loved ones lost recently and those who lost their lives in service to their country.

This year in particular, All Souls can offer a space for grieving for those who may not have been able to say farewell in the way they would have chosen; may not have been able to grieve alongside family and friends at a funeral or held a service to give thanks for a life well-lived.

Space to grieve is important as those who sent the names of loved ones to be included in the recent 'From Lamentation to Hope' service at Wells Cathedral said. They expressed their gratitude for the service which one person said, 'went some way towards beginning to heal the pain of inevitably sparsely attended services.” This service remains available to watch or share with others. Go to YouTube.com/BathandWells.

You can also find an All Souls or Remembrance service on the Church of England website www.ChurchOfEngland.org on 1 and 8 November. Alternatively you can find details of more local services at AChurchNearYou.com.
