CHURCH NEWS.

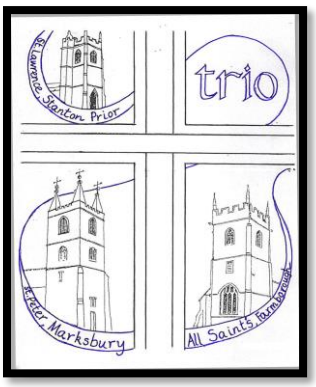

During the interregnum

EPIPHANY

ENQUIRIES about baptism, confirmation and weddings should be made by contacting one of the Churchwardens in the relevant Parish.

AND SAY HELLO.

If you have new neighbours, please let a Churchwarden know so they can receive a copy of Trio & a 'hello' from the Church family.

This month more bloopers, announcements and some 'smile lines!'

The vicar was praying for the sick and said: "We must remember Mrs Goodwin in our prayers. She recently had all her teeth taken out and a new gas stove put in."

Reasons to be cheerful

So you've packed away the Christmas decorations, family have left, and January looks grey and cold. After loss, with Covid raging, and restrictions still in place, we have every reason to feel a bit down.

However, there are reasons to be cheerful because, if we look ahead, increasing numbers of people will be receiving their Covid vaccinations and we can look forward to a new, new-normal with some of the old-normals returning!

The Coronavirus pandemic is testing each of us, but like everything, it too shall pass. We look forward to a time in 2021 when we can do the things that until now have only been a nostalgic dream. So what's your dream? The return of village hall events: the quizzes; flower shows filled with colourful garden produce; meeting old friends at whist drives and coffee mornings with cheerful greetings and scrumptious cakes. How wonderful to bump into village friends we haven't seen since last February because, yes, that's how long it's been!

Maybe, if you like sport, you are looking forward to a summer that will include the postponed Euro 2020, the return of Wimbledon and the Summer Olympic games, in Tokyo.

Or have you been missing live entertainment, meals out with friends or opportunities to travel? Let's be optimistic to look forward to long summer days and holidays to refresh the soul.

Let's dream about the warmth of human contact. The return of hugs, especially grandchildren and long-lost friends? We won't have to worry about dousing our hands in hand sanitizer or wearing uncomfortable masks. Let's dream to embrace without worry.

"This doesn't mean, of course, that we have only a hope of future joys—we can be full of joy here and now even in our trials and troubles. Taken in the right spirit these very things will give us patient endurance; this in turn will develop a mature character, and a character of this sort produces a steady hope, a hope that will never disappoint us. Already we have some experience of the love of God flooding through our hearts by the Holy Spirit given to us."

So, as you take down your Christmas decorations, don't be downcast, there's many reasons to be cheerful.

Martin

Bible excerpt from Romans 5:3-5, J.B. Phillips New Testament

Thank you to Martin Ward for providing Trio with thoughts to consider as we move into 2021 [Editor]

A new year message from the
The Rt. Revd. Peter Hancock
Bishop of Bath & Wells.

January 2021

One more step

January takes its name from the Roman god, Janus, who is usually depicted as having two faces, looking both to the future and the past. At the start of a New Year it is good to do the same.

2020 will sadly be remembered as the year disrupted by COVID-19. Cracks in our care for each other have been revealed and it has had a disproportionate effect on those already vulnerable or deprived. It showed us that those who are most essential to our needs, those who clean and serve and care, are often those valued least in our economy. However, we also saw extraordinary acts of kindness and compassion, as churches and communities worked together to provide comfort, support, and practical care.

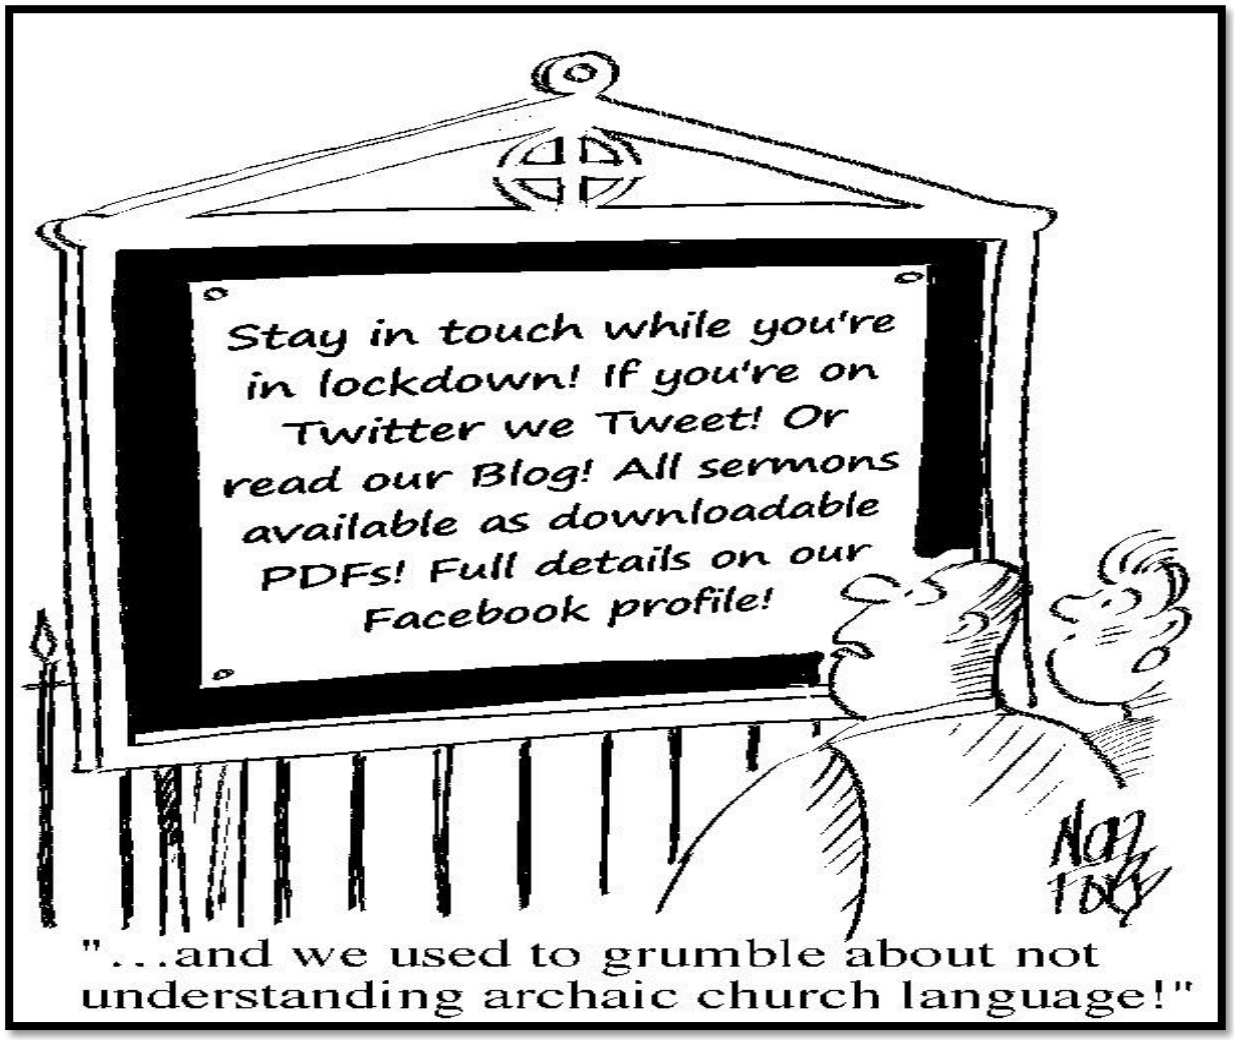

So, what of 2021? The temptation may be to forget what we have learnt, to paper over the cracks, ignore what has been uncomfortable and to seek comfort in the familiar. I hope we don't. 2020 opened our eyes to the harm caused when people are excluded on the basis of race, ability, gender, sexual orientation or wealth. Jesus calls us to a better way. Jesus broke the bounds of exclusion, refusing to accept the social norms and speaking to Samaritans, women, Gentiles, tax collectors and sinners. He teaches that the first shall be last and the last first. He reconciles humanity to God through his death and resurrection.

As we look forward to 2021, we need to think again what it means to follow Christ and to build our lives and communities based on mutual love, respect and service. 'For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many.'

May we all know the Lord's leading and guiding as we step out into a New Year.

With my warmest greetings,

Bishop Peter

THE CAT.

A vicar and his wife were going out for the evening, and carefully set the security lights and put the cat out. But when they opened the door to go to the taxi, the cat slipped back in and disappeared upstairs. Irritated, the vicar followed it.

The wife waited with the taxi driver. Not wanting him to know that they were leaving the parsonage empty, she said: "My husband is just upstairs for a quick word with my mother."

A few minutes later, the husband arrived, breathless. "Sorry I took so long" he said, "but she put up a fight! Stupid old thing was hiding under the bed and I had to poke her with a coat hanger and grab her by the scruff of the neck to get her out."

MESSAGE FROM TUTELA

The following message has been received from the Wakely family at Tutela in Mozambique:

Thank you so much for the change you are helping bring to the children of our first foster home. It has been eight months since our sixth child joined Rida's family and we have seen a new lease of life come to this little chap. Subdued and shy when he first arrived, he is now a cheeky young lad, who plays with his new brothers for hours on end, growing in a healthy way and trying to keep up with his older siblings.

It has been a very unusual year and in the midst of this we have been working hard to get the second home ready to go, despite setbacks.

We value your continued support. With love,

Jonny and Becky x

PS Your giving is what enables transformation in the lives of the Tutela children. Would you consider helping us in these challenging times by giving to our work – you can easily do this here - https:// www.give.net/TutelaAfrica

If you would like to see a video of the Foster Family moving day and find out more about life at Tutela, you can do so by following the link below:
https://www.tutelaafrica.org/news/index#MovingDay

TUTELA is a charity supported by Farmborough School & Church, both have strong links to the Wakely family as they lived in the village & the children attended the school while they were setting up Tutela.

From a church magazine in Hampshire:

We badly need more sinners for our choir.

BIBLE READING FELLOWSHIP -

Want to know more?

The Bible Reading Fellowship publishes several booklets, among other resources.
Several of us receive "New Daylight", a booklet containing a daily bible passage, followed by a short commentary and a prayer.
The commentaries are written by a wide range of people from different backgrounds. You don't have to agree with everything that they write, but most days the short reflection can be a stimulus to thought and prayer. One advantage is that the writers may tackle bits of the bible that may be less familiar, or that we find difficult. Three booklets are produced each year, and we take advantage of a reduced group rate of £12 per year. If you already subscribe and would like to continue, you don't have to do anything, but if you would like to give it a try, let me know before the end of January. If you'd like to have a look at a booklet, I have one or two old ones' spare.
The BRF also publishes "Guidelines", which looks at some passages in more depth, and other booklets including "Get Messy" (Messy Church is a BRF initiative), "Upper Room" and "Day by Day with God", all at the same price.

RESPONSE.

'The mother of a lively youngster was struggling to get him into his pyjamas one night. "Jamie, lift up your arms!" she said. To which the child promptly replied: "We lift them up unto the Lord!"

St Peter, Marksbury … a date for your diary

So many regular services had to be postponed in 2020. We are hoping, in Marksbury, to hold a Gift Service in church on 21st February, providing suitable gifts and goods to help people in need in and around our area.
There will be more details in next month's TRIO.

and Thank You…

We are so grateful for the wonderful response to our Gift Day appeal, and to all the people who have donated to church funds during a very difficult year.
It has enabled us to continue to meet our responsibilities, including regular charity donations.
Thank you very much indeed, you know who you are! [JudithH]

People remembered by the church in January:

January 13: George Fox, founder of the Society of Friends (Quakers) 1624-1691 He grew up in a strongly Puritan village, Drayton-in-the-Clay, Leicestershire. He was serious and religious, and was apprenticed to a shoemaker and grazier, which suited his temperament. He was put off established religion by those he considered frivolous. He moved to London in 1643, suffered from depression and returned home. He had disagreements with many clergy, some of whom considered him to be mad. He had a spiritual conversion, and came to the conclusion that ritual and church buildings were not necessary for true worship. In 1647, he began public preaching, and gathered a small following, who became known as 'Friends'. Fox was imprisoned for his beliefs several times, but continued writing and preaching, and met and was respected by Oliver Cromwell. After many trials and tribulations, he visited the West Indies and America. He also travelled through the Netherlands and Germany. Despite all setbacks, terms in prison, and disagreements between fellow Friends, Fox lived to see Dissenters pardoned. The Quakers survived, being a significant part of religious life around the world today.

January 28: Thomas Aquinas, Italian philosopher, 1225-1274 He is considered to be one of the Catholic Church's greatest theologians and philosophers. He was born into a wealthy and powerful family in Aquino, now Lazio, in Italy. He began his education aged 5, then attended the University in Naples, and by nineteen resolved to join the recently founded Dominican Order. His family disagreed and captured and imprisoned him, but he was eventually allowed to have his wish. As a student, he was quiet and some thought him slow. His teacher, Albertus said, 'You call him the dumb ox, but in his teaching he will one day produce such a bellowing that it will be heard throughout the world.' Thomas became an influential teacher in Paris, Naples and Rome, writing many great works, especially the 'Summa theologiæ'. He believed that religion was a science, and that God revealed himself through nature – maybe something to reflect on in these times of ecological danger. His philosophical writings are still immensely influential today. He died, following several falls, in 1274, and was canonised by Pope John XXII in 1323.

REMEMBERING MARKSBURY RESIDENTS

OUR THOUGHTS ARE WITH THEIR FAMILIES

Janice Harding
30th April 1925-5th November 2020

(Extracts from notes sent by Anne, with thoughts of her mother, following Janice's funeral at Haycombe). Remembering her mother's kind and selfless love, Anne writes, 'Mum moved to Marksbury at the age of 5, with her sister Joan, brother John and mother Sybil, after the early death of her farmer father, Harry Brooks. She lived at The Cottage, apart from a few years in Plymouth after marrying Dad, where she continued nursing, and having two of her four children. Janice enjoyed gardening, getting back to it, among other forms of exercise, after her hip fracture in 2019. Gardening was a source of solace following the tragic death of son Pete in February 2020. Janice was very courageous at this time, and was later able to enjoy a family holiday in the early autumn. She was a fantastic baker, renowned for fruit cakes and coffee sponges, and she loved both reading and playing cards! She had an independent spirit, catching the bus to Keynsham well into her 90s. Even in lockdown, Janice was able to enjoy a socially distanced 95th birthday in April 2020, and enjoyed it over and over again, thanks to videos. Her positive attitude to life was echoed in the words of Dame Vera Lynn, played at the funeral: 'Keep smiling through!'

May she rest in peace.

Tony Smith

We send our love, thoughts and prayers to the family of Tony Smith, of Lower Church Farmhouse, Marksbury, following his death on 1st December.

May he rest in peace.

ROSE CURTIS

'Further to the notes about Rose Curtis in the November magazine, there was a misunderstanding, for which I sincerely apologise, and which I gladly correct. Rose's family were so grateful to Barry and Mo for the love, care and attention they gave Rose during her illness.

May she rest in peace. JH'*

CHURCH.

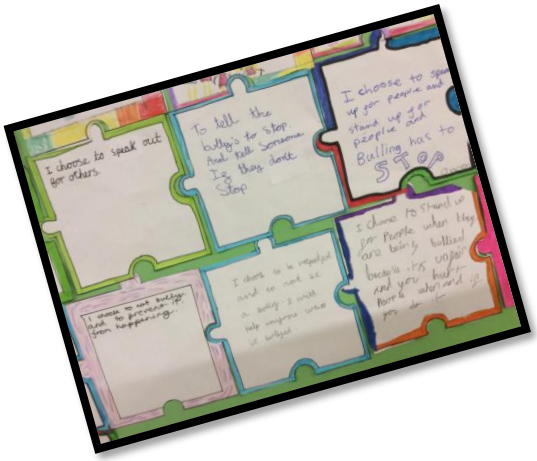

My grandson, Justin, watched a live streaming service with his dad one Sunday morning. His mum wanted to know how it went. He said, "The music was nice, but the commercial was too long."

Farmborough & Marksbury Schools

https://www.farmboroughchurchprimary.org.uk/
https://www.marksburyschool.org.uk/

You may remember in December's Trio both schools had been focussing on their Christian Values & looking at how they can all play a part in keeping us safe & happy, both schools have created displays.

Farmborough

The whole school created a display in the hall and each piece of the jigsaw explains what everyone's individual part will be in tackling bullying. The theme this year is 'United Against Bullying' and we discussed why that was a very apt slogan.
Yahla said 'No matter what if someone is not the same colour as you or not the same kind of person as you, we are all the same importance'.
Jacob said, 'I think the jigsaw is a good idea because all the pieces connect together and we want everyone to be kind and get along'.

Marksbury.

The children have also created their own piece of a large jigsaw to demonstrate how they can all play a small part in making a big difference. The completed jigsaw will be displayed in our hall as a reminder of the part we all play in ensuring everyone feels safe and happy.

Both schools also took part in & Marksbury raised £50 for the Anti Bullying Alliance

Christmas Celebrations were very different this year …..

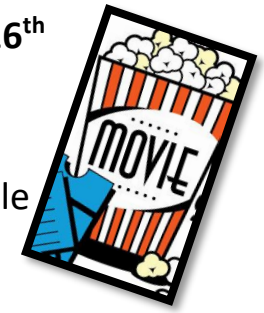

At Marksbury Classes took part in Christmas Roundabout Days.
This meant each class had a day when they experienced a variety of Christmas themed activities including craft and baking.

At Farmborough instead of the usual Christmas Show performances on the stage in the hall, they put together a range of activities across the classes to celebrate Christmas with the aim of making them available to view for a limited time, & with restricted access, on the school website.

But some traditions continue & on the 16th both schools had Christmas Dinner & Film Shows.
Farmborough wore Christmas jumpers while Marksbury chilled out in their pyjamas!!

BATH AND WELLS..

The Manna magazine has now changed to a monthly mailing format allowing Parish Magazine Editors to include items as here in Trio.

God calls everyone!

Rob Norman, Lay Dean for Portishead Deanery shares his passion for lay ministry.

Hear how you can get involved too…

What inspired your passion?
IT comes from my belief that God created all of us, lay people and clergy alike, to be equal, and that we all have a part to play in God's world. Lay people live out their faith in many ways, by showing what it means to be Christian wherever they meet people - through their kindness and care for other people.

Has 2020 seen any changes to lay ministry?
People have been taking on leading roles in offering online services as well being out in the community, being part of the army of people supporting people during Covid. Online worship needs different skills and gifts from the usual ones in church and it's been great to see lay people involved in this way.

How do you feel about this year's Archdeaconry Day activity being online?
Excited! Some people will be glad not to have to brave the January weather and can watch the videos we've created at home or, if they prefer, join in offline using the booklet. I have found the stories of prayer I have heard inspiring and I can't wait to share them.

What would you say to someone thinking about taking on a lay role with their church?
Have the courage to think about how God might be calling you and perhaps talk to people who know you well about it. Then perhaps chat to one of our Chaplains for Discerning Calling, who can help you explore further. Email jill.perrett@bathwells.anglican.org for details.

News from the diocese.

The Bath and Wells podcast (90)
We've launched a new podcast which features conversations exploring the places where God already is, and the church may not yet be! There will be conversation about what it means to be pioneering, and how God is leading us all in new and exciting directions.
Our first podcast features Tina Hodgett, who is Evangelism and Pioneer Team Leader in Bath and Wells, in conversation with Rachel Spence a Pioneer in Whiteway, Bath.
Find it on your favourite podcast platform and listen in!

A New Year's resolution-prayer
- following in His footsteps

Almighty eternal, just and merciful God, grant us the desire to do only what pleases you,
and the strength to do only what you command.
Cleanse our souls, enlighten our minds, and inflame our hearts with your Holy Spirit, that we may follow in the footsteps of your beloved Son,
Jesus Christ. St Francis of Assisi (1182 – 1226)

Some quotes to think about with the year ahead in mind...

- It is what we do with our solitude that makes us fit for company. - CS Lewis
- Friendship flourishes at the fountain of forgiveness. - William A Ward
- There is nothing stronger than gentleness. – Ralph W Sockman
- Love your neighbour, yet pull not down your hedge. - George Herbert
- Our days are happier when we give people a bit of our heart rather than a piece of our mind. – has been attributed to Ritu Ghatourney
- Speak your kind words soon, for you never know how soon it will be too late. - Anon
- I know where I am. I've been lost here before. - Anon
- We tolerate shapes in human beings that would horrify us if we saw them in a horse. - W R Inge, a former Dean of St Paul's.

ORDER.

Happy to visit his local pub before it closed again, a man found himself near two nuns.

Eager to talk to anyone after weeks in Tier 3, he ventured: "What is your order?" (Meaning their religious community.)

The nuns happily replied: "Sausage and chips."

Could you offer a 'Home for Good'?

Matthew 25 37-40 "Then those 'sheep' are going to say, 'Master, what are you talking about? When did we ever see you hungry and feed you, thirsty and give you a drink? And when did we ever see you sick or in prison and come to you?' Then the King will say, 'I'm telling the solemn truth: Whenever you did one of these things to someone overlooked or ignored, that was me—you did it to me.'

Home for Good in BANES has a very simple vision and that is that we find a loving home for every child that needs one through fostering and adoption. As we head toward Christmas we are excited to tell you that we only need 5 new foster placements to make sure every child in our area has a loving family. Wouldn't it be incredible if the Church could meet this need over this festive period and you could be part of that? Remember, there is no top age for fostering and the needs of children run from babies to teenagers. Maybe you could help us become the first local authority in the country to say that we met the needs of vulnerable kids!

Please contact Dave Kingswood at batharea@homeforgood.org.uk or call 07533978055 to chat about adoption or fostering. We look forward to hearing from you.

NUMBERS.

'When the minister announced the first hymn on Zoom, "Ten thousand times ten thousand!" the little boy turned anxiously to his father. "Does he want us to work that out?"

Community Support options

Don't forget all our villages are continuing to support residents; Farmborough Community Shop details are on page 25, contacts for Marksbury are on the village web site & Stanton Prior have a well-established strong 'contact' network.

Editor: And finally, here are some humorous tips for anyone who wants to write for Trio. This is part 1, and the 'tips' will conclude in the February issue.

Some of you have noticed a few typos in Trio now and then. To improve this for the New Year I am now using a new set of rules for editing:

1. Verbs HAS to agree with their subjects.
2. Prepositions are not words to end sentences with.
3. And don't start a sentence with a conjunction.
4. It is wrong to ever split an infinitive.
5. Avoid cliches like the plague. (They're old hat.)
6. Also, always avoid annoying alliteration.
7. Be more or less specific.
8. Parenthetical remarks (however relevant) are (usually) unnecessary.
9. Also too, never, ever use repetitive redundancies.
10. No sentence fragments.
11. Contractions aren't necessary and shouldn't be used.
12. Foreign words and phrases are not apropos.
13. Do not be redundant; do not use more words than necessary; it's highly superfluous.
14. One should NEVER generalise.
15. Comparisons are as bad as cliches.
