Actions speak louder than words

This letter is about climate change. –

Already, I fear, I have lost many readers. Researchers find that older people tend to switch off due to climate fatigue. Younger readers may also have stopped reading due to, climate fatalism, which sociologists describe as a feeling of powerlessness, a strong belief that the world will soon end because politicians cannot agree fast enough to take the actions required to avoid catastrophe. - Are you still with me? I just want to inject some optimism into the topic as it is, after all, New Year.

Those of us who were brought up in the Baby Boomer generation knew that we were fifteen minutes away from extermination. It was the Cold War and Russia and America had nuclear weapons aimed at each other's major cities, both waiting for the first one to fire before swift retaliation and Armageddon. Consequently, it was difficult to think of a future especially when Margaret Thatcher published, in 1980, a booklet entitled Protect and Survive. It had instructions about how to shelter from a nuclear blast using a door and table. Young people today have a similar doomsday pamphlet, published by Extinction Rebellion, advising them what to do when hungry mobs enter homes demanding food and threatening violence because society has broken down after sustained, severe, weather events.

Now here's the optimism. Mercifully, the world was not destroyed in 1980, thanks to two world leaders, Reagan and Gorbachev, who in the late 1980s, made concessions which ended the nuclear arms race and ultimately led to the removal of the Berlin Wall. This was after sustained public pressure from, for example, the Campaign for Nuclear Disarmament and civil disobedience from the Women of Greenham Common. Nuclear weapons still exist but the threat of tit-for-tat annihilation has diminished.

As we look forward to a new year let us be optimistic of the future and hope that a world leader will emerge who will lead others in the rapid decarbonisation of our wonderful, planet Earth. We already have Greta Thunberg who has bravely stepped up to the role of leader of the Earth's conscience. Now we need someone in power who can unite the presidents of the world to accelerate the changes required to keep global warming below 1.5 degrees [current projections put us at +2.1 degrees and rising]. As the Glasgow COP exemplified, world leaders have plenty of pledges with easy words, but they seem to be woefully short of deeds. Greta Thunberg described it as just, “Blah, blah blah.” Let’s hope that sustained action comes soon, as unexpectedly as the end of the nuclear arms race.

Moreover, we all have a responsibility to be green and phase out our personal use of fossil fuels. We have important choices to make sooner or later, when boilers and cars need replacing, in what we eat and what we buy. The Christian view is that we are stewards of God’s Earth; we should exercise love for the planet, for all species, and for the generations to come. In small ways we can demonstrate that actions speak louder than words.

Let us not love with words or speech but with actions and in truth. 1 John 3:18

Martin

Thank you to all who have filled this space & we look forward next month to our first letter from Guy as our Rector. Editor.

THE BELFRY BULLETIN

IN MEMORIAM - A quarter peal of 1,308 Grandsire Minor was rung in 42 minutes on Thursday December 2 2021 in thanksgiving for the life of Gillian Hayden, a faithful member of All Saints' Church. The ringers were: Treble: Robert Perry (Conductor), 2: Nicki J Lang, 3: Patrick C Bridges, 4: Sarah J Quintin, 5: Nicholas C Field, Tenor: Josh D P Jones. First blows in the method for 4.

Providing COVID restrictions aren‘t a problem, further quarter peals are planned for the Candlelight Carol Service on December 19 and January 17 to welcome our new Rector and his family to the Benefice.

Finally, this year we hope to resume our tradition of ringing in the New Year!

The light of a star to guide us

What will 2022 bring I wonder?

Two years ago Covid was just a vague murmur coming from the East. How could we have known it would have such an impact or for so long? How might this year be different? Well, there is much to look forward to. We expect to have a new diocesan bishop joining us. We will be celebrating 70 years of the Queen's reign. The World Cup is on… and we have a chance! And then there are all the other excitements of anniversaries, milestones and hopes and dreams we all have.

As we begin this new year my mind turns to those Eastern travellers long ago who saw a star in the sky, set out on an uncharted journey which took maybe up to two years, and eventually found a King. Not the sort of king expected but One who opened up new horizons for the whole world. One who offers us love, forgiveness and a way back to God.

At this time when we are asking questions that search for deeper meaning, this seems a story which resonates. What sort of journey will you take this year? At a recent clergy pre-Advent retreat we were reminded that it is not so much us walking with God but rather God walking with us. So, no matter what twists and turns the road takes, or even if we slip from following in God's Way, He will never give up on us and will never let us walk alone.

This year, as last, we shall be seeking to dwell on some words from scripture and allow them to permeate into our being.

The following verses from that passage, seem to offer us the light of a star to guide us as we navigate our journey in the year to come.

'Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.' Philippians 4: 4-7

May you know God's presence and grace as He walks with you into this New Year!

With love

Bishop Ruth

Farmborough & Marksbury Schools

Take a look at their websites to find out more about life at our schools.
https://www.farmboroughchurchprimary.org.uk/
https://www.marksburyschool.org.uk/

The Christian Value focus this term is GENEROSITY

Both schools have had a testing time with Covid outbreaks making running the school as 'normal' challenging however they are now having a well-deserved Christmas break & we can only pray that 2022 will be more positive all round.

You may remember Marksbury School were very proud that the Easter Card received from Church was a result of their art work & we said then that Farmboorugh would be doing the Christmas Card which has been distributed to all residents in the benefice.

Well done to Eddie aged 6 from Farmborough School for the brilliant card. Ed.

WITH EPIPHANY IN MIND…

I was telling my three boys the story of the Nativity and how the Wise Men brought gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh for the infant Jesus.

Clearly giving it a lot of thought, my six-year-old observed, "Mum, a Wise Woman would have brought nappies."

BIBLE STUDY; MINOR PROPHETS

Our bible study on October 28th unfortunately had to be cancelled because of Covid.
We plan to reschedule it for Thursday 27th January at 7pm (venue to be announced nearer the time).

Following our exploration of Amos and Hosea, we will attempt an overview of the Book of Zechariah. A distinctive feature of this book among the so-called "minor prophets" is that it includes several references to the coming of the Messiah – it's not all doom and gloom!
Each of these bible studies stands alone; all are welcome to come along to any of them, and you don't have to commit yourself to the whole series.

CRL/JH

VISITORS

The minister came home after church one Sunday morning looking very satisfied.
"Many people in church?" asked his wife, bustling around the kitchen.
"Yes, and we had at least three strangers, though I didn't see them."
"Then how do you know?"
"Because there were three £10 notes in the collection plate."

THREE TOWERS FESTIVAL 2022

All being well, we plan to hold the festival again this year, unless yet further covid mutations scupper our plans.
The programme will be announced in the next few weeks but meanwhile please make a note of the weekend 29th April – 1st May in your diaries.

WHAT CHILDREN HAVE TO SAY ABOUT ANGELS..

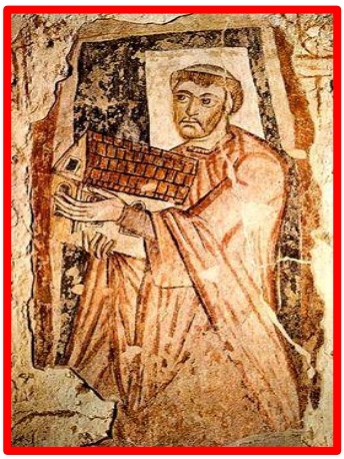

It's not easy to become an angel! First, you die. Then you go to Heaven, and then there's still the flight training to go through. And then you have to agree to wear those angel clothes. -Matthew, age 9

Angels work for God and watch over kids when God has to do something else. - Mitchell, age 7

My guardian angel helps me with maths, but he's not much good for science. - Henry, age 8

Angels don't eat, but they drink milk from holy cows. - Jack, age 6

Something to remember in January.

On 12th January, the Church celebrates the life of Benedict Biscop, c.628-690.

It wasn't his real name of course, and Biscop is pronounced Bishop, a bit of a clue. He was born to a noble Northumbrian family and for a time was in the court of King Oswiu of Bernicia, who was himself a significant influence in the Anglo-Saxon church. It's amazing to realise that Benedict travelled to Rome no less than five times. On his second journey, at the age of 37, he spent time in France at the monastic Mediterranean island of Lérins where he was instructed in the Rule of St Benedict, and adopted the name of Benedict himself on taking his monastic vows. After his third trip to Rome, Benedict was appointed Abbot of SS. Peter and Paul, Canterbury. He was granted land to build a monastery at Monkwearmouth in 674, and because of its success, was granted further land to build the sister house at Jarrow, the whole foundation becoming a Benedictine double monastery. Benedict Biscop collected a huge number of books on his travels; Bede was one of his pupils and wrote his acclaimed volumes of history in the library at Monkwearmouth-Jarrow. The library was world-famous, and manuscripts copied there became prized possessions throughout Europe.

Benedict was bed-ridden for the last three years of his life, suffering his illness with great patience and faith. He died on 12th January 690

BATH AND WELLS..

The Manna magazine has now changed to a monthly mailing format allowing Parish Magazine Editors to include items from the Diocese.

News in brief

God calls everyone

In February, everyone is invited to join us for a week of exploring the many and varied ways in which God calls us during our lives.

The week will start on Sunday, 6 February with a launch service with Bishop Ruth and from Monday to Friday there will be on demand video content featuring people across the diocese talking about their experience of calling and sharing stories of calling from the Bible.
The week will close with online gatherings to reflect and celebrate all that the week has held.

Join us on our Eco journey

In the next few months, we will be following a number of the church communities in Bath and Wells, as they think about some of the environmental challenges they face in order to reach the Church of England target to be net zero by 2030.

One of those we have talked with is St Cuthbert's Church in Wells, who are considering changing their heating system to make it more sustainable, environmentally-friendly and cheaper to run.
Keep up to date with our environmental news.

Living in Love and Faith: join the conversation

LIVING IN LOVE & FAITH

Church communities across Somerset are being encouraged to take part in a process of learning and praying together as part of discerning a way forward for the Church in relation to matters of identity, sexuality, relationships and marriage.
There are a range of Living in Love and Faith (LLF) resources to help facilitate the conversations on a dedicated Learning Hub.
They include two versions of a 5-session course for local groups - one for youths and young adults and another for general use. They are designed to facilitate open, honest, and gracious learning and discussion among churchgoers across the country.

Churches have been asked to take part in the course by the end of April 2022 and to share their learnings, reflections and insights via the online hub or email. Individuals can also respond the same way. This is understood to be the most extensive undertaking of any church to hear and articulate as wide a range of voices, lived experiences and theological understandings as possible on these issues.

The course examines the six roadblocks - prejudice, silence, ignorance, fear, hypocrisy, and power - that impair relationships, hinder our personal growth as Christians, and create barriers that stop our churches from growing into Christian communities of welcome and belonging. They draw together the Bible, theology, science, and history with powerful real-life stories.

Churches can go through the course themselves, or if they wish, utilise one of the 21 Bath and Wells facilitators. Find out more about LLF and how you can take part at bathandwells.org.uk/living-in-love-faith.

KNOCK KNOCK

The passenger tapped the taxi driver on the shoulder to ask him something.

The driver screamed, lost control of the car, nearly hit a bus, went up on the pavement, and stopped inches from a shop window.

For a second everything went quiet in the car, then the driver said, "Look mate, don't ever do that again. You scared the daylights out of me!"

The passenger apologised and said he didn't realise that a little tap could scare him so much.

The driver replied, "You're right. I'm sorry, it's not really your fault.

Today is my first day as a taxi driver. I've been driving a hearse for the last 15 years."

Interview

A safe space to think, discuss, pray and reflect

Assistant Curate and Chaplain Ruth Motion shares her thoughts on the LLF course.

How did you find the course?
It was great, very challenging, but great. It really makes you think about yourself, your views and how you feel about others. It's really well written and the short videos are very thought provoking. Sometimes it was really heart-breaking to find out how some had been treated by churches in the past.

Was the course information clear?
It's very well set out and presented, even if you were leading it without a facilitator. We each had little booklets so we could follow the Bible passage for the week and see the questions which we were discussing. The videos and personal stories were so moving. They really make you think.

Any advice for someone considering the course?
If anyone is nervous about doing the course I would say 'don't be'. Yes it makes you think, yes you will be talking about all sorts of things that you would never normally discuss in a church context, but it's very well done. It gives you the opportunity, in a safe space, to ask questions that you may have had for years, but didn't want to ask. The media seems to have focused on only one aspect of the course, that of homosexuality, but it's so much more.

Do you think the Church will benefit from people doing the course?
Yes, hugely. Everyone has the chance to have their opinion heard and although any future decisions made within the Church of England may not please everyone, regardless of what they are, at least everyone has had the chance to think, discuss, pray and reflect.
