Spreading hope

The flowers are blooming, the sun is shining, and the birds are singing in the trees - with the start of Spring and warmer weather it is easy to find hope and joy at this time of year. Perhaps it is divine providence then that the most hopeful and joyful time of the Christian year – Easter – occurs at this time of year?

Easter is the celebration of Jesus Christ rising from the dead and therefore the promise for all who turn away from trusting in themselves and instead put their trust in Christ that death is not the end for them either. But Easter has a wider effect than that. The Bible makes a lot of promises: the promise of a Messiah, the promise of eternal life, the promise of never being abandoned, the promise that God is for us not against us, the promise that God loves us… I could go on (and on – there are lots!). The fact that Jesus said that he would be put to death and then after three days rise again (Mark 8.31) and that it actually happened shows that God keeps true to his word, he is someone we can trust. This means that the hope of Easter is not just the certain hope of eternal life for those who believe but the certainty that God keeps all his other promises too.

This means that we can trust our future is secure in God and live without fear (Romans 8.32). If that were not the case then we would all be excessively anxious about the events occurring around the world today, (the war in Ukraine, the rising cost of living, the environmental crisis, coronavirus, <insert your own crisis here>). Such anxiety leads us to think about ourselves and prevents us from loving others whereas for those who know their future is secure in Christ we just let God take care of us and aren't preoccupied with taking care of ourselves. We say, "Lord, I just want to be there for other people, because I know you're going to be there for me."

So this Eastertime, as you are filled with hope by the spring weather, remember the certain hope we have for our future in God and let that inspire you to go out and bring hope to others.

Many blessings,

Revd Guy

JESUS' GRANNIE.

The little boy came home from his first day at Sunday School and casually told his mother that the Sunday School teacher was Jesus' grannie. Astonished, his mother asked: "Whatever makes you think that?"

"Well, it's pretty obvious," said her son. "She never stopped talking about Him all morning. She told us Jesus is smarter and stronger and better-behaved than anyone else she knows. She even showed us a picture of Him. Who but a grannie would do that?"

THE BEST POSITION IN WHICH TO PRAY.

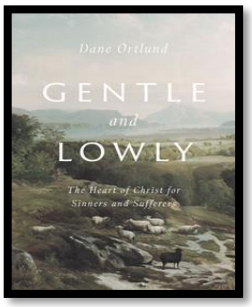

Three theologians at a conference centre sat discussing the best positions for prayer, while a telephone repairman worked nearby. "Kneeling is definitely best," said one, and backed up his claim by quoting a number of New Testament texts on humility in Greek.

"No," another contended. "I get the best results standing with my hands outstretched to Heaven." He quoted a few texts on praise in Latin.

"You're both wrong," the third insisted. "The most effective prayer position is lying prostrate, face down on the floor." He quoted a few texts on penitence in Hebrew.

The repairman could contain himself no longer. "Sorry to interrupt," he said, "but the best praying I ever did was in English, hanging upside down from a telephone pole!"

Lent book group 2022: Gentle & Lowly

This Lent we have been going through the book Gentle & Lowly: The Heart of Christ for Sinners and Sufferers by Dane Ortlund (readily available online in print, e-book, or audiobook).

With Lent being traditionally a season of repentance, this book draws us to Matthew 11, where Jesus describes himself as "gentle and lowly in heart," offering us a reminder amongst our repentance of God's love for his people and his longing for us to find rest in him. The chapters take us into the depths of Christ's very heart for sinners, diving deep into Bible passages that speak of who Christ is and encouraging readers with the affections of Christ for his people. What better book to read as we prepare ourselves for Easter?

If you would like to join the benefice book group we meet at people's homes every Wednesday at 7:30pm to share some food and drink and discuss whatever chapters people have managed to read that week.
Revd Guy is also hosting a group before Tuesday Teas at All Saints Farmborough from 1:30pm.
If you would like to join either group, please let Revd Guy know.

Week 5: (30th March - 5th April): Chapters 21 – Epilogue

A PRAYER FOR LENT:

Lord Jesus,
you came as a humble Servant
but were proclaimed
as King.
Even so, willingly you
became broken for us
and, through your death
and resurrection,
Love became triumphant!

For all the Saints

Spotlighting a brave life this month

Dietrich Bonhoeffer 1906-1945

What do you do if a psychopath becomes the populist leader of your country and sets it on a course against the rest of humanity? This was the dilemma for a patriotic German whose country had been seized by Adolf Hitler and had started a cruel ideology of the subjugation of minorities. Bonhoeffer is remembered for his staunch resistance to the Nazi dictatorship, including vocal opposition to Hitler's euthanasia programme and genocidal persecution of the Jews. He was arrested in April 1943 by the Gestapo, imprisoned, and sent to Flossenbürg concentration camp.

Bonhoeffer was accused of being associated with the 20th July plot to assassinate Adolf Hitler and was then quickly tried. He was hanged on 9 April 1945 as the Nazi regime was collapsing.

Bonhoeffer's God is a suffering God. Bonhoeffer believed that Jesus was the human manifestation of God and that God came to the world to accept the sufferings of mankind. This means that God understands human suffering, but it doesn't mean that God will intervene directly, on the contrary it is imperative for human beings to ensure that the world becomes a better place and take steps to address suffering, poverty, and injustice, working as God's agents. He believed that people must take responsibility for the direction of the world. Being involved in politics and promoting these ideals were imperative for him. Bonhoeffer insisted that the church, "had to share in the sufferings of God at the hands of a godless world". He is remembered for his bravery in the face of savagery. MW.

Farmborough & Marksbury Schools

Take a look at their websites to find out more about life at our schools.
https://www.farmboroughchurchprimary.org.uk/
https://www.marksburyschool.org.uk/

The Christian Value focus this term is JUSTICE

Revd. Guy has been into both schools leading Collective worship.

At Marksbury Reverend Guy talked about our term's Christian Value of Justice. He helped us to think about how we can help to make things right, by speaking up, listening and supporting others.
Reverend Guy also took to his hot seat once more and answered several questions. Some straightforward questions and some not so straight forward! Thank you to Poppy for telling Reverend Guy all about your macaroni cheese tea!

Glastonbury 2022 Update; Back to 'normal'.
Were you aware there are a team of volunteers who work at Glastonbury festival each year as campsite stewards, the money is donated to Marksbury School PTA? The proceeds are always over £3000.
The team is made up of 26 people from all walks of life & most of us have had or have a connection with Marksbury School, we will be providing cover in 2022 from 20th - 27th June.

By the Seaside; at Marksbury they don't just talk about what it is like to be beside the seaside, they get to taste it too! Stream class spent a morning talking about traditional seaside foods and then attempted to make vanilla and honeycomb ice cream

They then sat in the sunshine to taste their treat in the afternoon.
Lucky them!

While at Farmborough Hedgehogs enjoyed a trip to Farmborough Church. They met with Rev'd Guy and he showed them all around the Church. They all had a chance to climb the stairs into the pulpit and speak using their loud voices. The parent helpers were at the back of the Church and gave a thumbs up if they could hear them.

Rev'd Guy also showed them his colourful stoles.

Here are some of the children's thoughts about the trip:

"I liked going up the stairs into the pulpit." - Evie

"I liked wearing the stole." - Phoebe

"I liked looking at the window of the Church." – Victor

"I liked looking at the windows with Mrs Gray." - Callie Aleya

"I liked the look of the clock, when we left, we heard the bells." – Ewan

In the Marksbury Prayer Diary…

As well as prayers for the whole village, we focus on Priston Lane, Mollifrend Lane and West Tyning during April.

QUIET IN CHURCH.

A mother who took her fidgety seven-year-old to church finally had an idea: about halfway through the long sermon she leaned over and whispered: "If you don't be quiet, the preacher is going to lose his place, and he will have to start the sermon all over again." It worked.

GRANDPARENTS.

Grandmothers are mums with lots of frosting. – Anon

Becoming a grandmother is wonderful. One moment you're just a mother. The next you are all-wise and prehistoric. - Pam Brown

Grandchildren don't stay young forever, which is good because grandfathers have only so many horsy rides in them. - Gene Perret

You do not really understand something unless you can explain it to your grandmother. - Proverb

Around the Diocese

The Manna magazine is available using the following link, https://www.bathandwells.org.uk/content/pages/documents/manna-a5-apr-2022-a5-pages.pdf
there you will find the Bishop's letter & much more about what is happening in the Diocese but here are a few snippets of news.

Spire repairs underway

Work is underway to repair the spire of St Thomas', Wells. The church hit the headlines when two and a half metres of the spire plus its two and a half metre long weathervane came down during Storm Eunice. Revd Claire Towns saw the whole thing. She said, "We were just really shocked this happened, but equally feel very thankful that nobody was hurt".

Prayers and support for Ukraine

Churches across Bath and Wells have been praying for Ukraine and for peace. Many are open for those who wish to have a quiet moment of prayer or to light a candle, others have been holding prayer vigils. Locally church communities are working closely with aid agencies to raise money and support those in need in Ukraine and refugees from the conflict, including St Mary's Bridgwater and St John's, Yeovil. Bath Abbey showed a very visible sign of support, lighting up in blue and yellow while at All Saints, Farmborough the Ukrainian flag has been flying.

NO SUNBEAMS.

A small boy returned from Sunday School in tears.
When questioned by his anxious mother, he explained:
"This morning they told me that Jesus wants me for a sunbeam.
But I want to be a train driver!"

Interview

A uniting faith.

Andrew Avramenko, a curate at St Stephen's & St Mary's, Bath who has Ukrainian connections, reflects on the importance of hope in challenging times.

What's the Ukrainian connection?

My father is Ukrainian. His parents survived the Holomodor, a forced famine in the 1930s by Stalin that aimed to wipe out Ukrainian identity - over 7 million died. They escaped from Stalin's forces and from the Nazis when my father was a young child. They travelled across Europe on foot before being welcomed as refugees into the UK. I also have connections with both the Anglican and Orthodox Ukrainian churches.

Is faith important to Ukrainians?

Faith is very much part of the Ukrainian identity and their way of living. On social media you can see people praying and holding services in underground shelters, in underpasses and even in front of a church while warning sirens sound. Ukrainians are asking for prayers, not just for themselves but also for Russians, and have been deeply touched and encouraged by them.

Is faith a support in challenging times?

Faith is a very active thing that strengthens us, unites us and calls us to a better way, a peaceful way, out of this. It helps us to see people as human rather than a label, even our enemies. It unites us with people around the world, bringing us together in such a way that we couldn't do in many other ways.

How does conflict affect your faith?

If anything it strengthens my faith. I came to faith in part due to the last war in Europe, in Yugoslavia, and took aid to refugees. Although we may feel powerless, we do have the power to act; just as we have the power to do evil, we have the chance to do good and replace hate with love.
