DIVINE ILLUSTRATION....

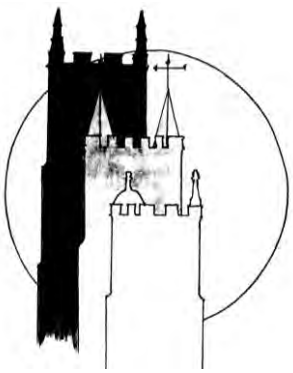

A teacher was observing her classroom of young children while they drew.
As she came to one little girl who was working diligently, she asked what the drawing was.
The girl replied, "I'm drawing God."

The teacher paused and said gently,
"But no one knows what God looks like."

Without missing a beat, the girl replied with perfect composure: "They will in a minute."

Letter & Reports

A life of rest

The month of August is for many a time of rest and relaxation. Holidays are taken, there are weekend trips camping or heading to the beach, and if all of that seems like a little too much effort there's always relaxing in the garden.

In our busy world we often feel pressured to always be doing something. We are told that rest is not productive that we should be filling our time with ways to better ourselves – be that getting fit, making ourselves more rounded individuals by taking up a new skill or hobby, or working on the next DIY project. But August reminds us of the biblical principle of taking rest, or as the Bible calls it – sabbath – a principle that is sew into the very fabric of our universe.

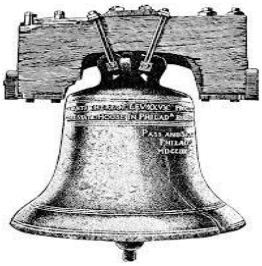

In the biblical account of creation God institutes the principle of sabbath by resting on the seventh day of creation. Even if you don't believe in a literal understanding of creation in Genesis it is still interesting to note that the authors of this account put in the detail that God rested. We see this idea of rest throughout the Bible from the 10 Commandments instructing God's people to observe the sabbath on one day of the week to the land being given a sabbath year where no crops are grown in it. This world is not meant for a 24-7 lifestyle; we all need rest.

Jesus affirms this when he says: "The sabbath was made to meet the needs of the people" [Mark 2.27]. We need rest. Living life in all its fullness does not mean filling every second of the day with things to do, but being able to find balance between work and rest because in reality a rested individual is a happier and more productive one anyway.

My prayer for all of you is that as you make more time for rest this August it might become a foundation for making more opportunities for rest as we move onto the busyness of September and that each of you might have a life that reflects the created order of this world, one where rest features regularly and restores you to life.

THE BELFRY BULLETIN

FOR a number of years, Farmborough ringers have had links with the towers at Corston and Newton St. Loe. We often practiced and rang quarter peals together, then COVID came along and like everything else, it all went to pot. There hasn't been a practice at Farmborough since February 2020 however, this was rectified on Friday July 1, when nine ringers got together to ring at All Saints'.

Some of us met again on Thursday July 14 when we rang a quarter peal of 1380 changes of Plain Bob Doubles in 44 minutes. The ringers were Robert Perry, Debbie Leach, Nicki Lang, Michael Stubbs, Tim Leach and me. It was Debbie's first quarter since 1994.

There are six bells in Farmborough tower with three ringing members to ring them and without the help of ringers from other towers they would be silent. The lack of recruits coming forward to learn the skill is a huge threat to the art.

Bells speak out without words, but loud enough. Too loud for some! They proclaim the Christian culture that our island has embraced and enjoyed for more than 1400 years, but you don't have to be a Christian or a church goer to try your hand at this peculiar English pastime of trying to control a lump of swinging metal. Whether you are male or female; 8 or 80 and fit, you'll be made most welcome at any church tower where there are bells. I learnt to ring at the age of 10, I'm still mesmerized by it and still doing it at 84.

Practice evenings are made sociable by having a drink at a local pub after ringing; additionally, there are many other associated activities throughout the year.

If you are interested in having a go or just taking a look, give me a call on 01761 471074. My mobile number is 0797 5655 989 or send me an email at: p.bridges104@btinternet.com

WHILE THE VICAR'S AWAY...

A church newssheet contained the following typo:
The vicar is away on holiday for two weeks.
Massages can be given to the curate.

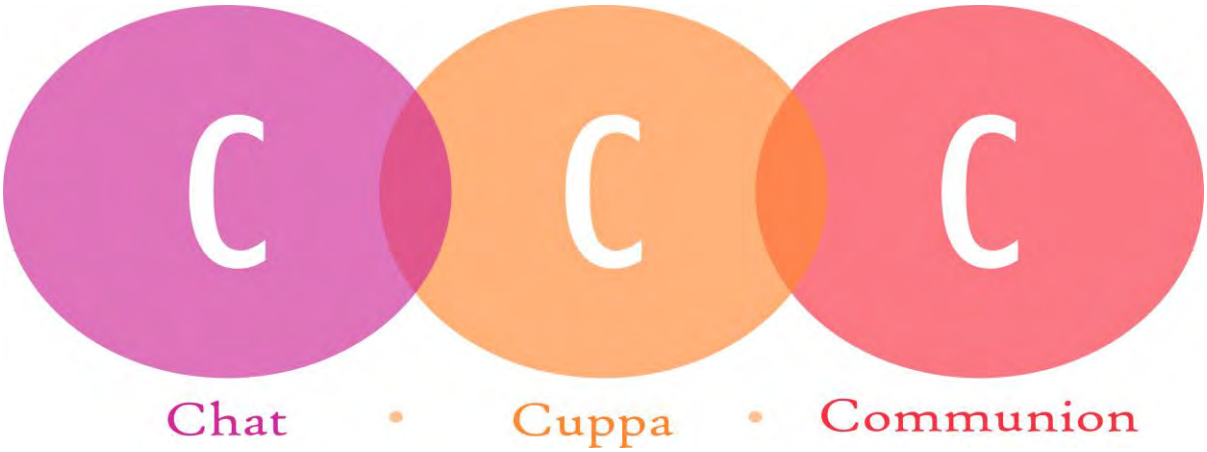

"Due to our failure to secure a holiday-relief organist, the next hymn will also be sung to the tune, Chopsticks."

EVERYTHING IS WONDERFUL

My face in the mirror isn't wrinkled or drawn.
My house isn't dirty, the cobwebs are gone.
My garden looks lovely and so does my lawn.
I think I might never put my glasses back on.

CHURCH NEWS...

Three C – A Chat, a Cuppa, Communion

Although the worst of the pandemic is over and life is returning to what it once was I am aware that there are many in our communities who are remain isolated or lonely unable to come to social events or church services.

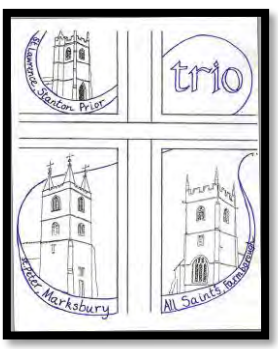

This may be because they are particularly vulnerable to COVID-19 or perhaps it is because the social activity they used to attend has now closed.

Whatever the reason, if you wish for some company over a cuppa or a service of home communion brought to you in the comfort of your house then please do contact me, I would love to visit you. Call me on 01761 754597 or email revdguy@gmail.com.

It is also an ideal opportunity to share ideas and have your views on improvements.

We are keen to make it a haven for wildlife as well as a peaceful place to visit and to remember loved ones.

HOW PRAYER REACHES GOD

An anxious mother confided in her minister: "My 10-year-old daughter says her prayers every night, but I am not sure they are reaching heaven."

Touched by her worry, the minister spent some time explaining to her about God's omniscience and omnipresence. But still, the mother looked worried. So finally he asked the mother why she thought her daughter's prayers would NOT be heard by God.

She explained: "Because when my daughter finishes, instead of saying 'amen', she says 'click, send'."

Thank you.....

.....From the Talent & Trading Group...

The Cream Tea, held on July 2nd, in aid of the Family Centre for Deaf Children, was a great success raising £520.

It was a happy event with a really friendly atmosphere in such a pretty village, our gratitude to Stanton Prior for such a lovely venue. We could not have achieved such a good result without the help & support of so many for which we give a huge thank you.

Together with the Soup Lunch held in March, plus kind donations, a total of £1,500 has been raised for this worthwhile charity.

Thank you again to all who made this wonderful result possible.

Bibles for Children

Once again, the children in Marksbury and Farmborough schools have received gifts of bibles from the village churches, with the help of the locally based Bibles for Children charity.
This year, new entrants were given the illustrated Children's Bible, and those leaving the schools in Year 6 each had a Good News Bible, these were presented by Revd Guy at their end of term services.

At Marksbury Rev. Guy presented children in 'Puddle' class with children's Bibles, saying that it's full of stories and pictures for them to enjoy as they grow and learn.
The children entertained parents & church members as they told a fascinating story about the life of a butterfly which they had illustrated, and finished off with a song!!!

It was lovely to be back at 'Thursday teas' on July 14th after a 3 year break !!!
It was great to see lots of lovely parents, children, visitors and of course, teachers!!

Farmborough school have recently received the fantastic news that they have once again been successful in being awarded a grant from The Parish Council. They are planning to create a fruit & vegetable growing area so that the children can learn about and experience growing their own food. School wish to extend their thanks to The Parish Council for supporting this exciting new project & to Nicky Stone for all her work with their application.

Weeks after the Pet's Service, nobody had claimed the monkey

For all the Saints

Spotlighting a brave life this month

If we are to better the future we must disturb the present.

~ Catherine Booth

AZ QUOTES

Catherine Booth (1829 –1890) was co-founder of The Salvation Army, along with her husband William Booth. Catherine and William began the work of The Christian Mission in 1865 in London's East End. William preached to the poor and ragged and Catherine spoke to the wealthy, gaining support for their financially demanding ministry. William and Catherine and their son Bramwell and daughter-in-law Florence were all vegetarian.

At that time, it was unheard of for women to speak in adult meetings. She was convinced that women had an equal right to speak. In January 1860, following the birth of their fourth child, during William's sermon, she asked to "say a word". She witnessed to her timidity about claiming her calling, yet William announced that she would speak that night. It was the beginning of a tremendous ministry, as people were greatly challenged by her preaching.

She became a partner in her husband's work and soon found her own sphere as a powerful preacher. She also spoke to people in their homes, especially to alcoholics, whom she helped to make a new start in life. Often, she held house meetings for converts. She eventually began to hold her own campaigns. Many agree that no person of her era, including her husband, exceeded her in popularity or spiritual results.

Catherine is celebrated for her commitment to social reform. She is known for her advocacy of better conditions and pay for women workers in London's sweated labour, notably in the match-making industry and organising Food for the Million shops where the poor could buy a cheap meal and at Christmas, hundreds of free meals were distributed to the needy. MW

Around the Diocese

No Manna mailing for August but there is a letter from Bishop Christopher.

I'm new around here. Following retirement from ordained ministry last year Somerset has become my adopted county and Bath and Wells my adopted diocese. Sally and I are delighted to be full time now in this lovely and stimulating area. We join many of you who have been part of this diocese and county for a lifetime or for decades, and also some who have recently arrived like us.

We have chosen to be here. Others arrive here because of a range of circumstances and decisions. Perhaps sometimes the journey seems haphazard or inexplicable. Some people come here as refugees fleeing persecution, injustice, or war, especially from Syria, Afghanistan, and Ukraine. They arrive with uncertainty, and often anxiety or trepidation in an unknown and entirely new place far from home.

In our churches and Christian communities, we are committed to welcome everyone – those settled here and also those who are newer. We know we are sisters and brothers in God's family, regardless of background, nationality or indeed any other thing which distinguishes us. God's family is the family of humankind. It's not that we pick and choose whom to call family; we share the same flesh and blood.

St Paul tells us that each one of us has been adopted into that family which is divine and human. God sent Jesus "so that we might receive adoption as children" enabling us to be gifted with the Holy Spirit. (Galatians 4:4-7)

We don't belong out of personal choice, in contrast to my decision to choose here as my adopted diocese and community. We don't pick and choose our ultimate citizenship. God chooses and calls us without us desiring or deserving such adoption. That's why, following God's adoption of us, we never select who to welcome into our church or parish. All belong and all are welcome without hesitation.

We have been adopted into God's family and we are thrilled to adopt everyone into our communities. Thank you for welcoming me!

+Christopher Foster (Honorary Assistant Bishop Bath and Wells)

The Rt Rev Christopher Foster, was the ninth Bishop of Portsmouth a role he held for over 10 years. He retired at the same time as his wife, the Rev Sally Davenport, who was a team rector at Holy Trinity and St Columba, Fareham.

Happiness

by Carl Sandburg

I asked professors who teach the meaning of life
to tell me what is happiness,
And I went to famous executives who boss the work of thousands of men.
They all shook their heads and gave me a smile
as though I was trying to fool with them,
And then one Sunday afternoon
I wandered out along the Desplaines river
And I saw a crowd of Hungarians under the trees
with their women and children and a keg of beer and an accordion.

Carl Sandburg (1878-1967) was born in Galesburg, Illinois to Swedish immigrants. He was awarded one Pulitzer Prize for his collection The Complete Poems of Carl Sandburg, and another for his biography of Abraham Lincoln (Abraham Lincoln: The War Years). He began his writing career as a journalist for the Chicago Daily News. Later he wrote poetry, history, biography, novels, children's literature, and film reviews. Sandburg also collected and edited books of ballads and folklore.

WRONG WATER

A mother was watching her four-year-old son playing in a small plastic pool half-filled with water.
He was walking back and forth with an expression of great concentration on his face, while making big splashes.
Suddenly, the little boy stopped, stepped out of the pool, and with a look of disgust, began to scoop the water out with a bucket.

"What's wrong, dear?" asked the mother.

"On Sunday the minister said Jesus walked on water, and this water doesn't work," he replied.

Chew Valley Choral Society

Calling all singers!

Chew Valley Choral Society is keen to welcome new members.

We have an exciting programme for our concert on 26 November, including Pergolesi's Magnificat, Haydn's St. Nicholas Mass, and Vaughan Williams' Three Elizabethan Partsongs.

We rehearse on Tuesdays, from 7.30 – 9.30pm, at Church Hall, Church Lane, Chew Stoke, BS40 8TX. We will be starting back on Tuesday 13 September and you are welcome to join us then.

Alternatively, on 20 September we have a taster session, which is a chance for those new to singing or those who haven't sung for a while to sing alongside regular members to see how they get on. The session is free of charge and all sheet music will be provided. The session will be led by our musical director, David Bednall, and we will also be joined at this session by voice coach, Angela Hickey.

Some music-reading ability is an advantage but support will be given to those with less confidence including thirty-minute booster sessions with Caroline Lowe before our regular rehearsals.

You are welcome to turn up to our regular rehearsal on 13 September or to our taster session on 20 September - no need to register in advance, but to give us some idea of numbers it will be helpful if you let us know if you plan to attend and what voice you prefer to sing.

For more information about the choir and all these events, please visit our website:
