BAPTISM.

A couple took their five-year-old young daughter to church.

During the service, the minister conducted the baptism of a tiny infant.

The little girl watched in wonder as he held the baby, said solemn words, then poured water over its head, and then carefully wiped it dry.

Finally, she turned to her father.

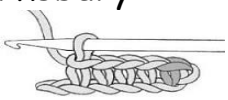

"Daddy, why is he brainwashing that baby?"

Thank you to Karen Caisley & Catherine Taylor for doing the flowers in our churches during June.

PAY FOR WHAT YOU GET.

A man and his ten-year-old son were on a fishing trip, miles from home. At the boy's insistence, they decided to attend the Sunday worship service at a small rural church.
The father forgot to bring any cash, so he reached in his pocket and gave his son 10p to drop in the offering plate as it was passed.
As they walked back to their car after the service, the father complained.
"The service was too long," he lamented. "The sermon was boring, and the singing was off key."
Finally the boy said, "Daddy, I thought it was pretty good for 10p."

Still time to…
join the Benefice book group.

Why do we sometimes succeed spiritually, and other times fail? How can we fight the forces of evil in this world? Come and find the answers this June as we start a new book group looking at C. S. Lewis's The Screwtape Letters.

If you would like to join the benefice book group we meet at the Rectory every Wednesday at 7:30pm to share some food and drink and discuss whatever chapters people have managed to read that week.
Revd Guy is also hosting a group before Tuesday Teas at All Saints Farmborough from 1:30pm.
If you would like to join either group please contact Revd Guy or just read along with the remainder of the plan below.

If Wimbledon inspired you then maybe this is for you!!

'Pensford Tennis Club opened our doors on Sunday 22nd May for our annual Open Day on our courts at the Memorial Hall Playing Fields in Pensford. The weather was glorious and we were delighted to meet many non-members who joined us on the courts.

The purpose of the event was to showcase our friendly, inclusive tennis club and to introduce local residents to our comprehensive coaching programme, which is directed by our two professional LTA coaches, Dan Church and Dan Bellamy.

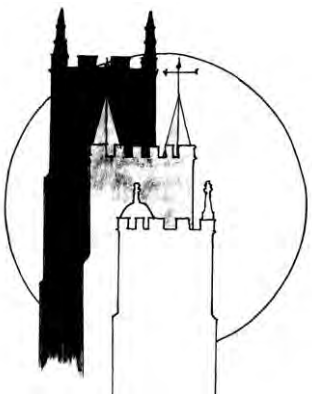

Lots of cake and coffee were consumed and the fun activities included junior, adult and walking tennis taster coaching sessions, family time and challenges. Discounts on new membership were offered to those joining on the day and we gained several new members as a result.

You don't need to live in Pensford to join Pensford Tennis Club and even if you missed out on the day, there is still time to join us for the 2022 season. You can find full details on www.pensfordtennisclub.co.uk. '

Letter & Reports

Following God's Path

July marks the end of the academic year, some may have broken up earlier, but for the majority July brings with it the end of lessons, exams, and homework – at least for a month – and heralds in a time of freedom. For those of us who are older, already free from academia, July marks the beginning of summer and the freedom that good weather provides.

Freedom is great, it gives us the opportunity to do all the things we love – or not – that's the great thing about freedom! But what directs how we use such freedom? Do we follow our own desires? The expectations of others? Or some other authority? I imagine most of us would follow our hearts, do what we most desire to do, but this is not a trustworthy guide.

Imagine a sailor, new to the ship and crew, confused as to where the ship is heading. It's night, and the ship's movements don't square with his training to use the North Star as a fixed reference point. So the confused sailor asks, "Captain, where are we going?"

The captain replies, "We do things a little differently here. See the lantern on the ship's bow? That's our guiding light. That's how we're making our way across the sea."

No wonder the ship's movements don't make sense. Guiding a ship by a reference point on the ship means the ship is adrift, voyaging to nowhere.

Human life is like a ship. To get where we're meant to go, we must have a reference point outside of ourselves. We cannot just follow our desires, they only show what we want, not where we should go.

But there is hope. There is God. He is the ultimate reference, the only reliable guide for living a life of meaning and joy for he created us and knows us. God loves each and every one of us, each day is one that he has prepared for us. As we follow God, the one whose service is perfect freedom, we will find ourselves blessed and led to joy (James 1.25; Psalm 43.4). This July, let us find freedom not in the weather or the absence of school but in the one who promises life in all its fullness – Jesus Christ. Amen.

THE BELFRY BULLETIN

THROUGHOUT the centuries, the sound of church bells has been an evocative symbol of continuity in English life, whether calling the faithful to worship, celebrating victories in battle, lamenting a death in the Parish or commemorating an event of national importance, such as the Queen's Platinum Jubilee.

On Sunday June 5 2022, I was joined at All Saints' Church by bell ringers from other towers to ring a quarter peal of 1272 changes of York Surprise Minor; they were Nicki Lang and Robert Perry from Holy Trinity, Newton St Loe, Bath Abbey ringer, Nicholas Field, David Marshall of St John the Baptist, Chilcompton and Michael Stubbs of St Mary's, Bathwick. Afterwards, there was a traditional tea party at my house.

It is recognised the sound of church bells is not appreciated by all. Hopefully villagers living within earshot enjoyed listening to forty minutes of continuous ringing in celebration of the Monarch's Jubilee. Vivat Regina Elizabetha.

CHURCH NEWS...

Three C – A Chat, a Cuppa, Communion

Although the worst of the pandemic is over and life is returning to what it once was I am aware that there are many in our communities who are remain isolated or lonely unable to come to social events or church services.

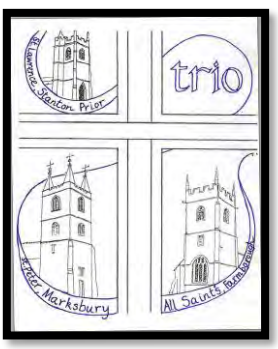

This may be because they are particularly vulnerable to COVID-19 or perhaps it is because the social activity they used to attend has now closed.

Whatever the reason, if you wish for some company over a cuppa or a service of home communion brought to you in the comfort of your house then please do contact me, I would love to visit you. Call me on 01761 754597 or email revdguy@gmail.com.

A TIDIED TOMB (Farmborough)

If you wander around to the East end of the churchyard at All Saints, you may notice that one of the large tombs (one of several linked to the Keedwell family) has had a bit of a makeover, being de-brambled and de-ivied.

Many thanks to Dave Stone, who climbed over the spiky railings at some personal risk; the rest of us worked from outside! A nearby holly bush has been considerably reduced, revealing another leaning tombstone.

I hope we can meet roughly monthly to help keep the churchyard looking good, involving some strimming, careful removal of ivy and clearing some areas for a bit more cultivation.
If you are interested in taking part, please contact me on 470425 or chrislovell805@gmail.com. Thanks. Chris.

Thank You to all who have supported the following ….

Jubilee celebrations were evident throughout the Benefice; weather wasn't a deterrent!!

Jubilee Celebration – Thank you!

On behalf of All Saints Church I would like to say a MASSIVE thank you to everyone who turned up to the Jubilee Celebration in the Memorial Hall on 3rd June and made it such a wonderful time of celebration. A great time was had by so many people and it was a privilege to be able to put on something that brought the village together in such a special way. Thank you to everyone who helped run a stall, serve drinks, prepare food, and decorate the hall – this wouldn't have been possible without all of your efforts. Particular thanks also go to Phil Gray for all his help ahead of the event – especially for the beautiful bunting on the exterior of the hall – and to the Parish Council for their grant that enabled this to event to happen. – Revd Guy

The Oozles Jubilee Beacon

Those intrepid enough to climb Barrow Hill (Oozles) on 2 June, were not only treated to another fantastic Jubilee beacon, but also the breathtaking views over Bath, Somerset, Wiltshire and beyond.

Around 14 beacons were spotted across the skyline at 9.45pm, the official time for the beacons to be lit.

Many thanks go to Jackie and Tim of Willow Farm for hosting the beacon and opening their gates to the village, as well as providing the bar on the hill, which raised around £200 for Farmborough Sports and Social.

Thanks also go to everyone who provided wood for the beacon, built the beacon (with specific mention to Andy Fray), or attended the event, which kicked off the village's weekend of Jubilee celebrations. Sam Ross to all involved whether as a diner, helper or both;

Thank you.....

the Soup & Dessert lunches held during April & May raised a total of

In the Marksbury Prayer Diary

During July, as well as offering prayers for the whole village, we think especially about the area from the Green down to the Vale and around the school.

HEAVEN HELP ME.

One Sunday in church a little boy was 'acting up' during the morning worship.
His parents did their best to maintain some sense of order in the pew, but it was a losing battle.
Finally, an exasperated father picked up his son and strode sternly down the aisle.
Just as the church doors closed behind them, the little boy cried loudly to the congregation: "Pray for me! Pray for me!"

THE KISS.

An honest seven-year-old calmly announced to her parents that Billy Brown had kissed her after church.
"How did that happen?" gasped her mother.
"Well, it wasn't easy," admitted the young lady, "but three girls helped me catch him."

Farmborough & Marksbury Schools

Take a look at their websites to find out more about life at our schools.

The Christian Value focus this term is COMPASSION

Both schools with Revd Guy have begun introducing the value through our collective worship.

Staff have been pleasantly surprised as the children recalled many bible stories that related to acts of compassion and discuss the reasons behind their choices. The children were also able to explain how they could be compassionate at home, so please look forward to lots of help around the house now!
The children were also able to see the link between being compassionate and empathetic and these are values which staff regularly see demonstrated across the school, especially at playtimes.
Both schools are very proud of the way the children demonstrate our Christian Values not only in school but also while we are out and about.
Once again during swimming this week a member of the public commented on how calm and well behaved the children were. Well done to all of them!

Many thanks to all who helped to make Marksbury Jubilee Fayre a success, from all of those who worked behind the scenes, parent helpers, PTA members and everyone who visited to support.

The event raised in excess of £500, which is amazing for a two-hour event. The children also enjoyed the responsibility of running some of the stalls as well as taking part in the parade.

At Marksbury Stream class and River class met in the hall to share their Create work with each other. River have been looking at Tinga Tinga African Art and Stream have been learning all about Pointillism.
They presented a little about what they had learned and showcased their favourite pieces. It is a great presenting opportunity for the children and really builds their confidence in Oracy.

Stream & River classes sharing their work.

At Farmborough just before the break Years 4, 5 and 6 enjoyed their annual Countryside Walk from school to Chelwood Camp.
It was a 2 hour walk to get there, through fields and woods and along roads and great to be out and about enjoying our natural environment.
At Chelwood the children had lunch and took part in some Forest School activities before tracing their steps back to school. The weather was generally kind and we had a great time.
Many thanks to the volunteers that accompanied us.

FARMBOROUGH ON THEIR COUNTRYSIDE WALK

This term got off to a great start at Farmborough with a visit from the Tidal Tales Collective, a musical theatre group, for a performance of 'Stars and Sails'.
Years 1 to 6 enjoyed the storytelling, singing, music and beatboxing and also learnt important messages about protecting our seas from pollution.
You can find out more about this family folk theatre company at https://www.tidaltalescollective.com/

Happy holidays!

We hope all the school children, teachers and their families will have a good summer holiday, with special thoughts for the children moving on to new schools in September.

For all the Saints

Spotlighting a brave life this month

Olaudah Equiano (c. 1745 – 31 March 1797), known for most of his life as Gustavus Vassa.

He was a writer, Christian and campaigner for the abolition of slavery. We celebrate three of the major campaigners against slavery on 30th July – William Wiberforce, Thomas Clarkson and Olaudah Equiano who was born in the Kingdom of Benin (today southern Nigeria). Enslaved as a child in Africa, he was taken to the Caribbean and sold to a Royal Navy officer. He was baptised at St Margaret's Westminster in 1759 and later wrote that his Christian faith underpinned all his life's work. He was subsequently sold twice until his new master, a Quaker merchant, allowed Equiano to purchase his freedom for the sum of 40 pounds in 1766.

As a freedman in London, Equiano supported the British abolitionist movement. He was part of the Sons of Africa, a group of Africans living in Britain, and he was active among leaders of the anti-slave trade movement in the 1780s. He published his autobiography, The Interesting Narrative of the Life of Olaudah Equiano (1789), which depicted the horrors of slavery. It went through nine editions in his lifetime and helped gain passage of the British Slave Trade Act 1807, which abolished the trade and gave financial compensation to the slave owners.

Equiano's personal account of slavery and of his experiences as a black immigrant caused a sensation on publication. The book fuelled the opposition to slavery. It describes how Equiano found himself in London where he married into English Society and became a leading abolitionist. His depiction of the infamous slave-ship, Zong, whose 133 slaves were thrown overboard in mid-ocean for the owners to claim insurance money, shook the nation. Equiano's book became his most lasting contribution to the abolitionist movement because it vividly demonstrated the humanity of Africans as much as the inhumanity of slavery.

Equiano married an English woman, Susannah Cullen, in 1792 and they had two daughters. He died in 1797 in Westminster. MW

Praying for young people
You are invited to join us as we hold a 'Week of Prayer for Young People' from 3 to 9 July. Download our Prayer Guide with themes and prayer prompts for each day at bathandwells.org.uk/week-prayer. There will also be daily prayer videos on our social media channels with young people and youth leaders from across the region giving voice to prayers for young people and the issues they face growing up in the 2020s.

Examining our history
Following over a year of detailed research, The Bath & Colonialism Archive Project, a joint initiative by Bath Abbey, Bath Record Office and Bath Preservation Trust, has launched a website containing information on the city's links to the transatlantic slave trade.
Guy Bridgewater, Rector of Bath Abbey said: "The Abbey is committed to striving for justice and the practical steps taken by the Bath & Colonialism Archive project enable the Abbey, the City of Bath, and the wider Church to examine our history with honesty and care."
Find out more about the project at bathandcolonialism.org.

SEAGULL.

A woman went to the beach with her children. Her four-year-old son ran up to her, grabbed her hand, and led her to the shore where a dead seagull lay in the sand. "Mummy, what happened to him?" the little boy asked.

Not wanting to upset him, she said: "He died and went to heaven."

The child thought for a moment and said, "And God threw him back down?"
