PRESENT

For their elderly vicar's 70th birthday, the congregation at St Mary's decided to give him a present of a new suit.
The vicar was so moved by the gift that the following Sunday he stood before everyone and began his homily with a tear in his eye,
"Today I am preaching to you in my birthday suit."

Don't forget to put

….. THREE TOWERS FESTIVAL 2023

in your diary April 28th – 30th.

Our benefice music festival is 10 years old this year! We have tried to incorporate as many musical styles as possible over the years, involving professional and amateur musicians, and we hope there is something for everyone.

This year's festival takes place from 28th. to 30th. April, starting with contributions from pupils at our two schools and ending with the Jenner Jazz Trio.
We are pleased to welcome back the Brue Boys male voice choir, together with young musicians from Wells Cathedral School, the folk duo Bygonz and Gina Zagni and Caroline Reed playing music for viola and piano.

Admission to all concerts is free of charge, but please be generous with donations if you are able (but if not, come and enjoy the music anyway!).

Donations will enable us to cover expenses, including a little to support the upkeep of our historic churches, and also to support the wonderful work of the Amber Trust, which enables young visually impaired children to make and appreciate music.

More information to follow in the April Trio, but please keep the weekend free and tell your friends!
Chris Lovell

And add this heads up!!!

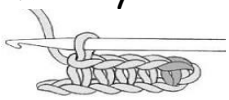

Malmesbury Choir are back at All Saints on Dec 2nd, further details in the Autumn.

Letter & Reports

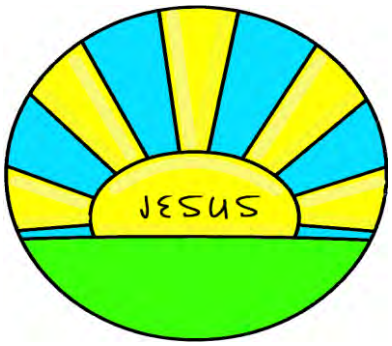

The Dawning of a new day

The month of March is a time for me when things start to feel a little brighter, a little better. The cold and dark winter months of January and February have passed and the days are getting noticeably longer - hurrah! Alongside this there are the signs of new life in the blooming of the flowers and the blossom on the trees, the sight of birds nesting, and the start of lambing season. There is plenty to be hopeful about.

Alongside this the Church is in the time of Lent. Lent is not normally associated with such joyful things as the signs of new life that the season of Spring offers us - rather it is a time of reflection, self-examination, and repentance. It is a time where we give up something - be it chocolate, alcohol, cigarettes, or something entirely different. Rather than bringing joy, Lent only seems to bring misery as we confront the darkness in our own lives that separates us from God.

But to think of Lent only as this is to only see one side of the coin. Yes, it is a time of confronting darkness but it is also a time when we are invited to embrace the light of Jesus Christ, to open ourselves to the love and grace of God, and to draw closer to the light that can never be extinguished. This Lent, as the signs of Spring bring us hope for new life, let the lengthening days draw you ever closer to Jesus Christ, the light of the world, as we discover his love for us through prayer, scripture, and by talking to others who are on the same journey towards light and life as you.

Revd. Guy

BREAKDOWN

Yesterday I broke down on the M1.
One of those emergency trucks charged me £200 to pull me off.
I think it was the abominable towman!

THE BELFRY BULLETIN

THE pattern of ringing at Farmborough has been sorely affected over the past weeks. Sadly, we were unable to ring for a couple of Sunday services due to a lack of ringers. However, on Sunday January 29 a full peal was attempted only for it to end abruptly after approximately an hour and a half of ringing.

A full peal requires ringing a set of over 5,000 changes or permutations continuously, and usually takes anything from two and a half to over four hours; the time depends on several factors including the number of changes and weight of the bells, which affects the speed of ringing. The ringers were Nicki Lang, Patrick Bridges, Nicholas Field, Josh Jones, Robert Perry and Michael Stubbs. Better luck next time, perhaps!

In February, the tower clock was serviced by The Cumbria Clock Company when the mechanism was checked, adjusted, oiled and the cobwebs blown away.

It's 25 years since it was decided to restore this 18th century timepiece as a millennium project. The two train, birdcage type turret clock designed to strike the hour on the tenor bell has the name Edward Ellicott, London, 1796, engraved on the setting dial.

It had been suggested that "Ellicott's" mechanism was a restoration or modification of an older movement. Church records indicate that a new clock was set up in 1729 by Thomas Bilbie of Chew Stoke also, the motion works behind the clock predate the timepiece, the hour hand being driven by parallel bars instead of a tube.

However, on dismantling the clock the initials "TR" were found on the component parts indicating that it was probably made by Thwaites and Reed of London, a company still in existence to this day with antecedents from 1610; it claims to be the oldest clock manufacturing company in the world.

So, did Edward Ellicott actually make the timepiece? Well, probably not. He was certainly a London clockmaker and may well have added his name to a mechanism he had purchased, which was common practice.

After 30 years of dereliction, this historical part of the village was restored well ahead of schedule by Andrew J Nicholls of Bristol at a cost of £10,000, a sum raised after only six months. Rededication took place on Saturday January 1 2000.

Patrick Bridges,
Tower Captain and Keeper of the Clock

CHURCH NEWS…

BIBLE READING FELLOWSHIP NOTES.

If you would like to add a little more structure to reading the bible, may I recommend subscribing to publications produced by the Bible Reading Fellowship?

They produce several different booklets. Some of us subscribe to New Daylight, which gives a sequence of daily bible readings, each followed by a short reflection and a prayer.

The authors come from a variety of different church backgrounds, so there is a refreshing variety of styles. Over time, all areas of the bible are covered, including unfamiliar and difficult passages. One may not agree with absolutely everything each author says, but it's good to be challenged!

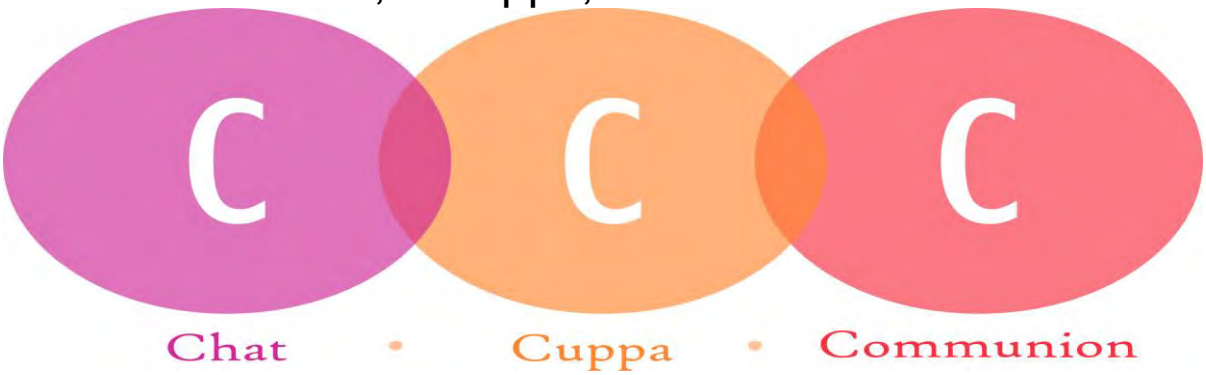

Another series of booklets, Guidelines, provides more in-depth coverage of books of the bible.

Please let me know if you would like to join our list of subscribers (a reduced group rate of £12 a year for three booklets) or if you'd like to have a look at an example of one of the booklets. Chris Lovell

PUT IT THIS WAY…

Some people have a keen sense of rumour.
Some people's vocabulary is small, but their turnover is terrific.

Three C – A Chat, a Cuppa, Communion.

Although the worst of the pandemic is over and life is returning to what it once was I am aware that there are many in our communities who are remain isolated or lonely, unable to come to social events or church services.

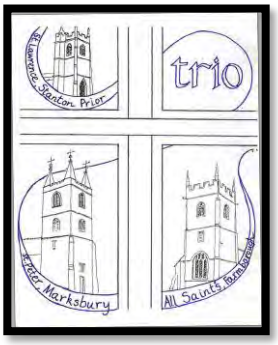

This may be because they are particularly vulnerable to COVID-19 or perhaps it is because the social activity they used to attend has now closed.

Whatever the reason, if you wish for some company over a cuppa or a service of home communion brought to you in the comfort of your house then please do contact me, I would love to visit you. Call me on 01761 754597 or email revdguy@gmail.com.

Thank you.....

to all who supported the Memorial Hall Quiz night in January.
We made £1,200 which was absolutely brilliant as we are self-financing relying on our fund raising to complete repairs & improvements.

Hire fees cover the day to day running costs which are increasing as we are all aware of from our household budgets.

It was lovely to see so many local residents & regular users making up the teams, we had 16 in total. All enjoyed a hot 2 course meal which Dawn & Trudi were responsible for, a licensed bar run by Nicky & Lisa, a raffle thanks to Sue & Jan & finally the most important part was the work from the Quizmaster Patrick Bridges who we are indebted to.

Patrick tells us he enjoyed it & has offered to do another next year so put January 27th 2024 in your dairies now as some teams were turned away this year due to space!

GO!

A teenager was always asking his father if he could borrow the family car. Pushed to the limit, the father asked his son why he thought that God had given him two feet.
Without hesitation, the son replied,
"That's easy, one for the clutch and one for the accelerator."

Marksbury Prayer Diary.

In March we pray for the whole village, with special emphasis on the area from the Green, down the Vale and around the school.

If anyone has a particular need for prayer (which will be treated confidentially), please contact Revd Guy (754597) or Judith (470317).

Farmborough & Marksbury Schools

The Christian Value focus this term is

FORGIVENESS

Both schools have been to their local churches.

At Farmborough HEDGEHOGS' went as part of their RE topic, they had been thinking about and learning about special places including All Saints where they were met by Revd Guy, he told them all about the Church and let them explore.

When they got back to school, they thought about what makes All Saints Church Special - here are some of their thoughts:

"Everyone is welcome there." Nia

"All Saints Church is special because you can get Christened there." Finn

"It has a pulpit." Ellie

"Church is special because of all the patterns on the window." Belle

While in Marksbury Puddle class were very excited to visit St Peter's to share their learning with friends and family. They shared their class text 'Let's all creep through crocodile creek', which they have thoroughly enjoyed reading in class. The book has also served as a motivation for their writing, through warning posters, captions and descriptions.

'Thank you Puddle class for visiting'.

During Term 3 Farmborough were involved in SPORTSHALL ATHLETICS becoming SMALL SCHOOLS COUNTY CHAMPIONS. It was only the third time that they'd ever qualified for the finals, which take place at the University of the West of England.

Otters enjoyed wheelchair basketball each week as part of their PE lessons, all class have taken part at times learning a great deal about control, movement and skill in this exciting sport.
It's been a fantastic experience for everyone and created a real buzz in all classes.

TERM 4 starts with BOOK WEEK….
When many activities will take place including learning a poem off by heart, 'bake off' based on a book character theme, the familiar activity of dressing up as a book character & DEAR (Drop Everything and Read) this is to encourage children to have a book with them at all times which they can pick up & read when they have a spare moment.

Marksbury learnt about Safer Internet Day in Term 3, this included learning more about how to stay safe online as part of this year's safer internet day, the focus was … 'Want to talk about it?
Making space for conversations about life online'.

Puddle class looked at many different scenarios and talked about how they would react to them, where they could get help and who to could talk to. The children were very open and honest as well as being supportive of each other. They knew that they could speak to grown-ups if they had a concern and they thought about other strategies that they could use. The children talked about using electronic devices whilst family members were nearby so that they could seek help when needed.

They were also interested in why games and films had suggested ages on them and discussed how what was within the game and or film may be upsetting, worrying or difficult to understand for younger children.

There was a musical assembly at Marksbury from Deb, the guitar teacher, who was visiting to teach the children all about learning the violin, those interested were asked to let Deb know.

The guitarists are making great progress and really persevering with practice and performance.

From Term 4 Marksbury are really pleased that Deb has offered to run a ukulele club after school on a Tuesday, the school has its own set of ukuleles for children to use initially meaning purchasing one would not be necessary to start with.
Staff said

"It is lovely to hear music around the school once again!"

THE BIBLE ACCORDING TO CHILDREN

Children's version of biblical stories and events have a charm all their own. The following efforts have not been retouched or corrected (i.e. bad spelling has been left in).

~ Adam and Eve were created from an apple tree.
~ Noah built an ark, which the animals came on to in pears.
~ Lot's wife was a pillar of salt by day, but a ball of fire by night.
~ The Egyptians were all drowned in the dessert. Afterwards, Moses went up on Mount Cyanide to get the ten amendments.

For all the Saints

Spotlighting a brave life this month

St. Patrick's Day on 17th March, has evolved into a global celebration of Irish culture and heritage but who was the real St Patrick?

St. Patrick was born in Britain in the 4th century. He was kidnapped and taken to Ireland as a slave, where he worked as a shepherd, outdoors and away from people. Lonely and afraid, he turned to his religion for solace, becoming a devout Christian.

After more than six years as a prisoner, Patrick escaped. According to his writing, God's voice spoke to him in a dream, telling him it was time to leave Ireland. To do so, Patrick walked nearly 200 miles from County Mayo to the Irish coast. After escaping to Britain, Patrick reported that he experienced a second revelation—an angel in a dream told him to return to Ireland as a missionary. Soon after, Patrick began religious training, a course of study that lasted more than 15 years. After his ordination as a priest, he was sent to Ireland with a dual mission: to minister to Christians already living in Ireland and to begin to convert the Irish.

One of the most well-known legends about St. Patrick is that he used the three-leafed shamrock to explain the Holy Trinity to the Irish. The legend states that he used the three leaves to illustrate the concept of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit being three distinct entities, yet still being one and the same. This story has become synonymous with St. Patrick and is often depicted in illustrations and symbols.

St. Patrick's Day has been celebrated in Ireland for centuries, but it wasn't until the 19th century that the holiday began to be celebrated on a large scale outside of Ireland. Irish immigrants brought the tradition of celebrating St. Patrick's Day to America, where it quickly became popular among both Irish and non-Irish people. MW

Bath & Wells future vision.

Living and telling the story of Jesus

The question that Bishop Michael is asking everyone to consider is ….
How, in response to God's immense love for us, we seek to be God's people living and telling the story of Jesus?

Earlier in the year, Bishop Michael shared his thoughts on the diocesan vision and four key areas of focus he has identified as important.
The vision for us all in Bath and Wells encourages us to live out our everyday faith; responding to Jesus' life, teaching and work and to tell his story, in word and deed.
He wants to hear what people think about them and encouraged everyone to play their part to help shape how we can, together, live out our vision in the future.
Julia Hill, Head of Deanery and Parish Support says, "Whether you are a member of a church congregation, are in a school, a chaplaincy or any other context, please share your views on how we move forward together. We will be holding Zoom sessions for people to join the conversation, but we are also encouraging people to have conversations in their own setting and then share those views using a simple online form."
"We are very keen to hear a diversity of voices, including those of children and young people and have produced some guidance notes for those facilitating discussions."
The consultation closes on 30 April 2023. The responses will be collated and reviewed so we can determine our next steps. Find out more about how you can get involved at bathandwells.org.uk/vision.
